1st July 2021

Dear parent/carers

Home learning will begin on google classroom from Friday 2nd July 2021.

Worship will start at 9am on google classroom which all children need to attend.

There will be recorded lessons for children to complete and they need to upload their work on google classroom. If your child is unable to upload their work, please can they record in their home learning books and bring these into school once we return.

Phonics lessons will be happening in the afternoon and we will put details of these onto Google Classroom for you to see.

The log in details are as follows:

Username: firstname.lastname@claytonce.org (all lowercase)

Password: Some people have logged on recently and know their passwords. You will be called to check you can log on OK. If you are having difficulties, please let us know when we call and then your password will be reset to Clayton123 as soon as possible.

Kind regards

Mrs Whincup & Mrs Chamberlain
