

Thursday 18th March 2021

Why was Australia brought up in this location?

LO: to read information about Australia and answer multiple choice questions

Read the text

We will be answering these questions:

- What are the first settlers called?
- What is the population today?
- Who settled in Australia after Captain Cook discovered it?
- Where do most of the population live?

	What are the first settlers called?
A	The first settler are British Settlers.
B	The first settler are Aboriginal Australians.
C	The first settler are European Explorers.

	What is the population today?
A	Today's population is 23 million.
B	Today's population is 1768.
C	Today's population is 17 million.

	Who settled in Australia after Captain Cook discovered it?
A	The British settled in Australia after Captain Cook discovered it.
B	The Australians settled in Australia after Captain Cook discovered it.
C	The Europeans settled in Australia after Captain Cook discovered it.

	Where do most of the population live?
A	Most of the population live in the centre of the country.
B	Most of the population live in the coastal cities.
C	Most of the population live in the mountains.

Let's read the text again

This time we need to find the answer to finish these sentences:

LO: to complete sentences based on the information we have read about Australia

Captain James Cook was sent to learn about the _____.

Australia is a large country, with _____.

The weather is _____ in these regions.

There are _____ and a high-standard of living and homes.

Would you rather live in Bradford or Australia?

Why?

I would rather live in _____ because _____.