After many weeks the swallows were flying over the vast, turquoise ocean and had nowhere to rest. Their wings felt heavy and their tummies were hungry but they could not stop. How tired they were! Just then, as they were flying towards Africa, they spotted a huge, hungry eagle. The eagle swooped down towards the poor, exhausted swallows. Open-mouthed, he tried to grab one of the swallows. What a greedy eagle. Quickly they dipped out of his way as they could see the land just ahead.
