Year 6 PSHE | Relationships | Summer 1

What will change as we become more independent?

How do friendships grow and change?

talk

we do

Recap:

Name 3 similarities and 3 differences between a marriage and a civil partnership.

LO: to explain that marriage should be wanted equally by both people and that forcing someone to marry against their will is a crime.

we do

Forced Marriage.
Knowing what both of these words mean individually, what do you think they mean together?

LO: to explain that marriage should be wanted equally by both people and that forcing someone to marry against their will is a crime.

you do

Read the text with your partner and answer on post it notes:

1. How old must you be to marry in England, Wales and Northern Ireland without your parents permission?
2. What is an arranged marriage?
3. What is a forced marriage?
4. Why can forced marriages happen in secret?
5. Who is against forced marriage?
6. List 4 reasons why some families force their children to marry.
7. What does everyone have the right to do?

LO: to explain that marriage should be wanted equally by both people and that forcing someone to marry against their will is a crime.

we do

Read the text with your partner and answer:

1. How old must you be to marry in England, Wales and Northern Ireland without your parents permission? 18
2. What is an arranged marriage? a marriage where families take the leading role in choosing the partner, but the choice whether to marry is left to both the people
3. What is a forced marriage? where one, or both, people do not consent to marriage and are pressured into it
4. Why can forced marriages happen in secret? because it is illegal
5. Who is against forced marriage? all major religions (Muslim, Hindu, Sikh, Christian and Jewish)
6. List 4 reasons why some families force their children to marry.

   think it's an important part of religion or culture/are worried about the family's reputation and honour ('izzat')/want all of the family's money to stay together/want to marry their children off in exchange for money/don't approve of their child being gay, lesbian, bisexual or transgender/ don't want their children to have relationships/feel pressured by the community or other family members to follow traditions/want to keep family values and honour.
7. What does everyone have the right to do? choose who, when or whether they want to get married/make decisions, tell people what is happening/feel safe, ask for help/say no

LO: to explain that marriage should be wanted equally by both people and that forcing someone to marry against their will is a crime.

you do

With your partner, order your post it notes to show the structure or the text.

Then retell the text to your partner by using the answers on the post-it notes and making them into full sentences.

LO: to explain that marriage should be wanted equally by both people and that forcing someone to marry against their will is a crime.

we do

With your partner, order your post it notes to show the structure or the text.

Then retell the text to your partner by using the answers on the post-it notes and making them into full sentences.

LO: to explain that marriage should be wanted equally by both people and that forcing someone to marry against their will is a crime.

we do

Who can help?

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MY7BhF-f96M

ChildLine 0800 1111

LO: to explain that marriage should be wanted equally by both people and that forcing someone to marry against their will is a crime.

I do

In the UK, it is illegal to.....

An arranged marriage is when the families take a leading role in choosing the marriage partner, but the choice of whether to consent to the marriage is made by both people freely; whereas a forced marriage is.....

LO: to explain that marriage should be wanted equally by both people and that forcing someone to marry against their will is a crime.

we do

Despite it being illegal, a forced marriage may occur because.....

Everyone has the right to.....

LO: to explain that marriage should be wanted equally by both people and that forcing someone to marry against their will is a crime.

you do

Create a Pic Collage that explains what forced marriage is, why it happens and what everyone has the right to choose.

ChildLine 0800 1111