I do

Today we will be writing part of this chapter but from the point of view of Zelda.

Something is putting me down carefully, something is scratching me and something has hurt my head. I stand up and start crying.

'Where are my mummy and daddy?' I ask the boy, who must have been the one carrying me.

'I want mine,' the boy answers, which doesn't tell me anything and makes me cry even more.

I look around: I'm in a field I don't recognise and there's a strange smell coming from the boy. He looks sad and dirty, I'm not sure what has happened or why I'm not in my house but I have a feeling he has stopped me from being in danger.
