People of God

Recap:

How did Moses bring freedom and justice to his people?

How do the 10 Commandments bring justice?

LO: to explain how Christian charities can bring freedom and justice to others.

Matthew 22:37-40 NIV

Jesus replied: " 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments."

These are the two greatest commandments that Jesus tells his listeners. Can you spot the links between these and the Ten Commandments?

How might these link to charity?

LO: to explain how Christian charities can bring freedom and justice to others.

you do

Take it in turns to read the text with your partner. Read a paragraph at a time each.

I do

What Christian values are present?

What about the ten commandments?

How are the values of freedom and justice being shown through their work?

tearfund

we do

What Christian values are present?

What about the ten commandments?

How are the values of freedom and justice being shown through their work?

Task:

Choose either Christian Aid or TearFund.

Imagine you have been asked to write for their website. Write a persuasive paragraph that encourages Christians in the UK to support their work.

What ideas from our learning could we include?
The story of Moses

The children of Israel

The 10 Commandments

Jesus' Two Great Commandments

tearfund

I do

Would you want to live a life without access to life's essentials? Be hungry at all times? Never have clean water? Never have medicine when you are ill? If the answer is no....

tearfund

we do

Jesus said one of the greatest commandments is to 'love you neighbour as yourself'.

you do

Task:

Choose either Christian Aid or TearFund.

Imagine you have been asked to write for their website. Write a persuasive paragraph that encourages Christians in the UK to support their work.

What ideas from our learning could we include?
The story of Moses

The children of Israel

The 10 Commandments

Jesus' Two Great Commandments