

Order the events in chronological order

|                                                                    |  |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| Ahmet crosses mountains and rivers                                 |  |
| Ahmet gets on a boat to cross the sea                              |  |
| Ahmet stands in front of the class to tell his story               |  |
| Ahmet's sister and cat were not on the boat                        |  |
| Ahmet explains he is a refugee from Syria                          |  |
| Ahmet says there is a big war in Syria so they run away from home  |  |
| Ahmet is happy in England because he feels safe.                   |  |
| Ahmet stays in France                                              |  |
| Ahmet meets people from different countries and they live in tents |  |

Order the events in chronological order

|                                                                    |  |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| Ahmet crosses mountains and rivers                                 |  |
| Ahmet gets on a boat to cross the sea                              |  |
| Ahmet stands in front of the class to tell his story               |  |
| Ahmet's sister and cat were not on the boat                        |  |
| Ahmet explains he is a refugee from Syria                          |  |
| Ahmet says there is a big war in Syria so they run away from home  |  |
| Ahmet is happy in England because he feels safe.                   |  |
| Ahmet stays in France                                              |  |
| Ahmet meets people from different countries and they live in tents |  |