

Wednesday 16th June 2021

LO. to the create a fact sheet about the Everglades

The Everglades

we do

Does anyone know anything about the Everglades?

you
do

With your partner, read the text and answer the following questions.

1. Where are the Everglades?
2. How did they protect the land and animals from builders?
3. How many square miles do the Everglades cover?
4. What type of climate is the Everglades?
5. How many seasons do they have?
6. What else are the Everglades known as?
7. How many species of bird are the Everglades home to?
8. What is the importance of the Everglades to alligators and crocodiles?
9. How many people does the Everglades supply drinking water to?
10. Why are the Everglades such a refuge for a wide variety of wildlife?

you
do

With your partner, read the text and answer the following questions.

1. Where are the Everglades? The Everglades are located in Florida between Lake Okeechobee and the Gulf of Mexico.
2. How did they protect the land and animals from builders? To protect the land and animals from builders they designated the Everglades as a National Park.
3. How many square miles do the Everglades cover? The Everglades cover 750 square miles.
4. What type of climate is the Everglades? The Everglades have a subtropical climate.
5. How many seasons do they have? The Everglades have two seasons.
6. What else are the Everglades known as? The Everglades are also known as the River of Grass.
7. How many species of bird are the Everglades home to? The Everglades are home to over 350 species of bird.
8. What is the importance of the Everglades to alligators and crocodiles? The Everglades is the only place in the world where alligators and crocodiles live together.
9. How many people does the Everglades supply drinking water to? The Everglades supply drinking water for 7 million people.
10. Why are the Everglades such a refuge for a wide variety of wildlife? It is a refuge for a large variety of wildlife because most of the Everglades is freshwater rather than salt water.

I
do

What are the Everglades and where are they located?

Animals and plants

Climate

Manatees

In your books, you are going to create a fact sheet about the Everglades.

The Everglades

What are the Everglades?

Where are the Everglades located?

Climate

Plants and animals

Manatees

Fun Facts

Use subheadings

Use pictures

Put in as many facts
and as much information as possible

