

Can you remember
the definitions from yesterday?

Glossary

code-breakers

symbols

substitute

Allied

Axis

deciphering

forerunner

predetermined combination

rotor

plugboard

Glossary

code-breaker - a person who solves a code or codes.

symbols - a drawing, shape, or object that represents an idea, object, or amount of something substitute - to put in the place of another

Allied- In WW2, Great Britain, France, and the United States.

Axis - In WW2, Germany, Italy, and Japan deciphering - translate from code, or more generally, figure out forerunner - a person or thing that came before another combinations - various ways in which a group of letters, numbers and/or symbols can be ordered.

rotor- the part of an electrical machine that turns predetermined - to decide in advance plugboard- a device with a large number of sockets into which electrical plugs can be inserted to form many different temporary circuits

LO: to identify the key facts in each section of the text

you do

2nd read: order the text

3rd read: question the author

Read the text with your partner - take it in turns to read a section each.

Pay close attention to the pictures and the subheadings!

LO: to identify the key facts in each section of the text

I
do

	Subheading	Key Facts

LO: to identify the key facts in each section of the text

we do

Subheading

Key Facts

LO: to identify the key facts in each section of the text

you
do

Complete with your partner.

	Subheading	Key Facts

		