LO: to predict.

I do

Today we are going to start our new book study.

Using the following pictures. Can you predict what the book will be about?

LO: to predict.

I do

Who is in the picture?

What is happening?

LO: to predict.

I do

Who is in the picture?

What is happening?

Do the pictures link? Why?

LO: to predict.

I do

Who is in the picture?

What is happening?

Do the pictures link? Why?

LO: to predict.

we do

Write sentences to predict what is happening in the illustration.

LO: to predict.

you do

TASK 1

Now you are going to have 5 pictures taken from the front cover.

1. Write a short paragraph explaining what you think the book will be about. Ensure that you describe what you think will happen and who the characters are.

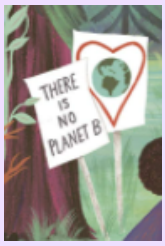

PLEASE LEAVE A SPARE PAGE FOR A BOOK TITLE. WE WILL STICK THIS IN AT THE END OF THE LESSON.

THERE IS NO
PLANET B

I do we do

Discuss the word cloud.

How has this changed your view on the book?

What is it about?

you do

TASK 2

Stick the word cloud in to your books. Write a couple more sentences predicting what the book is about.

Our new English unit will be based on the book 'Old enough to save the planet' written by Loll Kirby. We will use this to inspire us to write a narrative piece.

Meet kids - just like you - taking action against climate change. Learn about the work they do and discover how the future of our planet starts here... with you.

Stick in to your English Books.

About the author - Loll Kirby