Marking Feedback

Maxwell, Faith, Sam and Cara work with Miss Holroyd in the cloakroom.

Check your direct speech examples.
Punctuation
Grammatically correct.

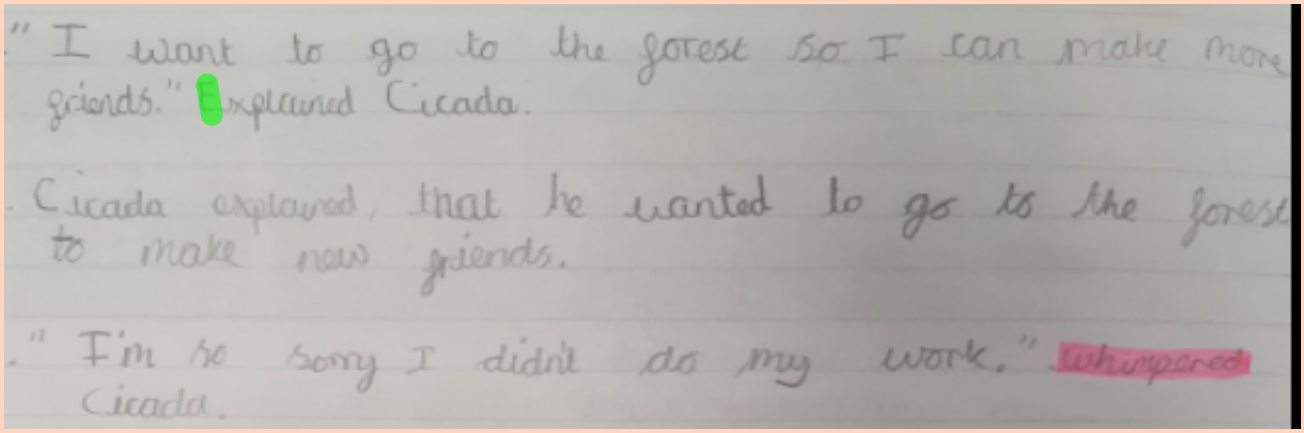

Marking Feedback

What did we need to use when we were using indirect speech?

How could we change this sentence so it is indirect speech?

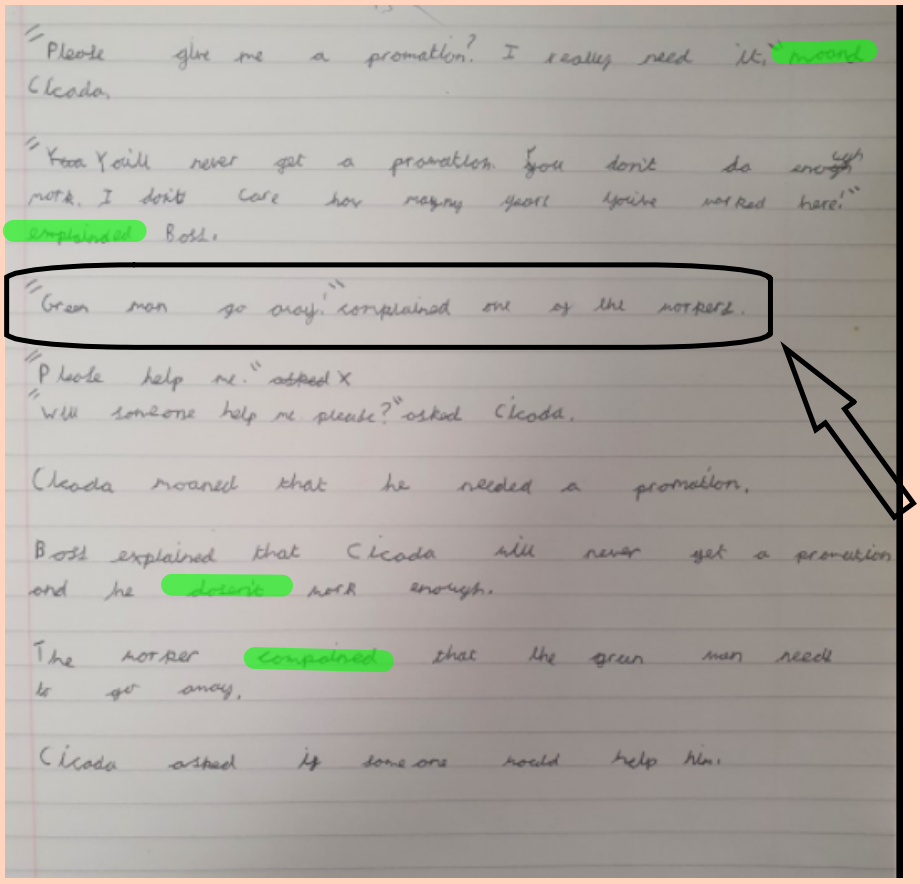

Marking Feedback

Check punctuation of speech.

How would we advance the action in the speech?

Marking Feedback

moaned

explained

doesn't

complained

How could we extend the detail?

Marking Feedback

- Ensure your sentences are correctly punctuated.
- Extend the detail in what the character is saying.
- Advance the action in your direct speech.
- Check these spellings in your work.

  moaned

  explained

  doesn't

  complained

LO: to use drop in clauses.

The superhero, terrified of being late for lunch, crashed out of the building.

The mouse, which looked heavy, hitched a ride on a passing toad.

The superhero, who was desperate for a burger, crashed out of the building.

The alien, hoping this was dinner, stared at the crowd.

The superhero, who was desperate for a burger, crashed out of the building.

The superhero crashed out of the building.

The clause gives additional information about the superhero.

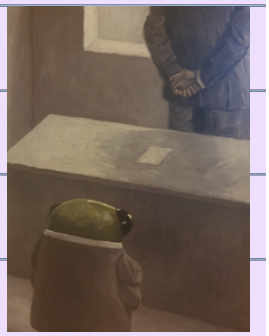

What else could we say?

* A clause adds more detail to a sentence, and wouldn't make sense if it appeared on its own.
* Drop in clauses about an object usually start with "which".
* Drop in clauses about person/named animal usually start with "who".
* A comma before and after clause.

Cicada waited patiently for a response.

I do

What additional information could we add about Cicada?

Cicada waited patiently for a response. I do

Cicada, terrified of his boss, waited patiently for a response.

Cicada, who had requested a promotion, waited patiently for a response.

Watch how I add add in a drop in clause.

I do

The insect,

Human resources,

The company,

we do

Look at this picture.

Write a sentence using a drop in clause.

who...

ing...

ed...

Cicada, who was a little green bug, was cleaning his desk.

LO: to use drop in clauses.

you do

Using what we know about the story, write 8 sentences in your books using a drop in clause. Remember your commas!

who...

which...

-ing...

-ed...

Sentence openers to support

Cicada,

The insect,

The Humans,

Human resources,

The company,

you do

Using what we know about the story, write 8 sentences in your books using a drop in clause. Remember your commas!

who...

which...

-ing...

-ed...

Sentence openers to support

Cicada,

The insect,

The Humans,

Human resources,

The company,

Post it note whiteboard support