What sort of person is Felix? Kind/Naive/Loud/Bully? Why? He's in an orphanage but he thinks his parents are coming for him. What does this mean?

The story of Once appears to be narrated by Felix; a young Polish boy who, in 1942, is in an orphanage in the mountains. The first chapter introduces us to Felix as he discovers a carrot in his soup - an unusual find and something he tries to keep secret. Using the first person to describe the events, we discover Felix believes his parents sent him the carrot as a message. This, combined with his prayers to Adolf Hitler, the date and the fact he is in an orphanage, suggests that Felix is quite a naive, young child who either doesn't know what is happening in 1942, or doesn't want to know.
