we do

LO: to recite a verse of a poem

The Lady of Shallot by Alfred Lord Tennyson.

Let's try and recite the poem together - can you remember your verse?

you do

LO: to understand the poem by finding the definitions of unknown words.

Highlight the key vocabulary on your poem.

Glossary - Part 1	Glossary - Part 2
wold	weaves
imbowers	hath
reaper	surly village churls
sheaves	damsels
weary	abbot
shallop	ambling pad
apparelled	page
	thro'
	plumes

I do

LO: to understand the poem by finding the definitions of unknown words.

Part 1

wold	a person that harvests a crop
imbowers	extremely tired
reaper	a piece of high, open land or moor
sheaves	a light sailboat
weary	surround or shelter
shallop	clothes
apparelled	a bundle of grain stalks laid lengthways and tied together after reaping

we do

LO: to understand the poem by finding the definitions of unknown words.

Part 1

wold	a person that harvests a crop
imbowers	extremely tired
reaper	a piece of high, open land or moor
sheaves	a light sailboat
weary	surround or shelter
shallop	clothes
apparelled	a bundle of grain stalks laid lengthways and tied together after reaping

you do

LO: to understand the poem by finding the definitions of unknown words.

Match the word to it's definition for Part 1

Part 1

wold	a person that harvests a crop
imbowers	extremely tired
reaper	a piece of high, open land or moor
sheaves	a light sailboat
weary	surround or shelter
shallop	clothes
apparelled	a bundle of grain stalks laid lengthways and tied together after reaping

Glossary - Part 1

wold - a piece of high, open land or moor imbowers - surround or shelter reaper - a person that harvests a crop sheaves - a bundle of grain stalks laid lengthways and tied together after reaping weary - extremely tired shallop - a light sailboat apparelled - clothes.

I do

LO: to understand the poem by finding the definitions of unknown words.

Part 2

weaves	unfriendly village peasants
hath	a man who is head of an abbey of monks
surly village churls	to make by passing threads or strips over and under each other.
damsel	a young male servant, usually to a nobleman or lady
abbot	old fashioned form of the verb 'have'
ambling pad	a young, unmarried woman
page	decorative combinations of feathers, often attached to horses
thro'	horse moving at a slow, relaxed pace plumes	non-standard spelling of 'through'

we do

LO: to understand the poem by finding the definitions of unknown words.

Part 2

weaves	unfriendly village peasants
hath	a man who is head of an abbey of monks
surly village churls	to make by passing threads or strips over and under each other.
damsel	a young male servant, usually to a nobleman or lady
abbot	old fashioned form of the verb 'have'
ambling pad	a young, unmarried woman
page	decorative combinations of feathers, often attached to horses
thro'	horse moving at a slow, relaxed pace
plumes	non-standard spelling of 'through'

you do

LO: to understand the poem by finding the definitions of unknown words.

Match the word to it's definition for Part 2

Part 2

weaves	unfriendly village peasants
hath	a man who is head of an abbey of monks
surly village churls	to make by passing threads or strips over and under each other.
damsel	a young male servant, usually to a nobleman or lady
abbot	old fashioned form of the verb 'have'
ambling pad	a young, unmarried woman
page	decorative combinations of feathers, often attached to horses
thro'	horse moving at a slow, relaxed pace
plumes	non-standard spelling of 'through'

Glossary - Part 2

weaves- to make by passing threads or strips over and under each other.

hath - old-fashioned form of the verb 'have'

surly village churls - unfriendly village peasants damsel - a young, unmarried woman abbot - a man who is the head of an abbey of monks.

ambling pad - horse moving at a slow, relaxed pace page - a young male servant, usually to a nobleman or lady.

thro' - non-standard spelling of through plumes - decorative combinations of feathers, often attached to horses.

we do

LO: to understand the poem by finding the definitions of unknown words.

1st Read: Read the poem

Read the poem with your partner. Take it in turns to read a verse each

Use the key vocabulary to help you answer:

1. Where does the road lead to? many tower'd Camelot
2. Who is living on the island? the Lady of Shalott
3. What is the curse? she knows not what the curse may be
4. What does the mirror reflect? tower'd Camelot
5. Who can she see in the mirror? surly village churls, red cloaks of market girls, troop of damsels, abbot on a horse (pad), shepherd lad, page, knights, two young lovers