LO: to write a dialogue.

What do we know so far?

Read up to this page and discuss

you do

I do

What is happening?

Who are they?

Why is he in trouble?

What do we think the characters would be like?

we do

Mayor	Boy

I do

I do

Mayor	Boy
Questions	At first- Shocked
Cross/Angry	Angry
Probing	Defensive
In charge	Then- Quiet
Confident	One word answers
Demanding	Scared Polite

What would the characters say?

we do

Mayor	Boy
Oi!	erm.....nothing
Are you trying to escape?	but....but....
Why?	I don't know Sir
So...I am in charge
It's not your choice

I do

I do

Advancing the action in speech helps us to understand what is going on the story.

"Woah! Little boy, where are you running to?" screamed the Fat Mayor as he lunged forward to grab the escapee.

I do

Let's write our dialogue

I do

"Woah! Little boy, where are you running to?" screamed the Fat Mayor as he lunged forward to grab the escapee.The little boy said nothing. "Do I have to repeat myself?" questioned the Fat Mayor. His face flushed puce.

"Erm...erm...I was just..." stammered the Little boy.

The mayor stood proud and demanded " Where are you going?".

The boy looked down at his shoes and timidly replied " I'm sorry Sir. I just want to go home".

" You shouldn't be here!" the Major bellowed with rage. The soldier lowered his gun and fiercely grabbed the boy by his cuff. The boy immediately put his hands in the air and stuttered out the words " I'm sorry". Tears began to fall down the boys face.

LO: to write a dialogue.

you do

Write a dialogue for this event in the book.

Capitals and full stops
Speech marks

Synonyms for said.

Vary your word choices to suit the character.

