

LO: to write a diary.

What did we infer yesterday?

we do

Describe what you can see/hear

we do

Describe what you are doing

we do

Describe how you are feeling

I
do

- 1) What are you doing? staring, hiding, watching, protecting
- 2) What can you see and hear? muffled cries of soldiers, five tonne trucks, injured soldiers with congealed blood
- 3) How are you feeling? What are you thinking? sombre, melancholic, numb, broken, empty, fear, paranoid, anxious

[illegible]

I
do

As I stand at my window and stare at the men in front of me, all I feel is sadness. The men sank into their hands and the muffled cries echoed through the street. Five tonne trucks bellowed down the cobbled road whilst the soldiers laid tired and beaten. What will happen now? A wave of nausea rushed through my body at the thought of what will happen next.

we
do

Staring...

The sombre mood...

LO: to write a diary.

you
do

Using the ideas we have put together, write your diary entry as if you are Rose Blanche.

Capitals and full stops

Vary your sentence openers

'I' always capital

Conjunctions

Adjectives choices

Verb choices

Descriptive words	Openers
cobble stone road	Today...
young soldiers	As...
five tonne truck	When...
grey sky	Through...
sombre mood	After a while...
sadness	Across ...
anxious	Staring...
fearful	