Silence filled the air. The bushes rustled; the mud squelched and the leaves crunched with each footstep. Emerging from behind the towering trees, a little girl, no older than us, came in to view. She gazed at us and her eyes widened with sorrow. Who was she? Would she help? I took a small step closer to the fence to get a better view. Some of my prisoner friends joined me and looked at her with hope but others backed away at unease and uncertainty. Slowly, the girl, came closer towards the fence. I took the chance and shouted 'help' at her. The other prisoners joined in with me.

As the girl....
