Third reading – question the author: -

Imagine the author in your head. Read the paragraph and check out with the author that you are understanding the information.

Read the text for a third time

Speak of the North by Charlotte Bronte *

Speak of the North! A lonely moor
Silent and dark and tractless swells,
The waves of some wild streamlet pour
Hurriedly through its ferny dells.

Profoundly still the twilight air,
Lifeless the landscape; so we deem Till like a phantom gliding near
A stag bends down to drink the stream.

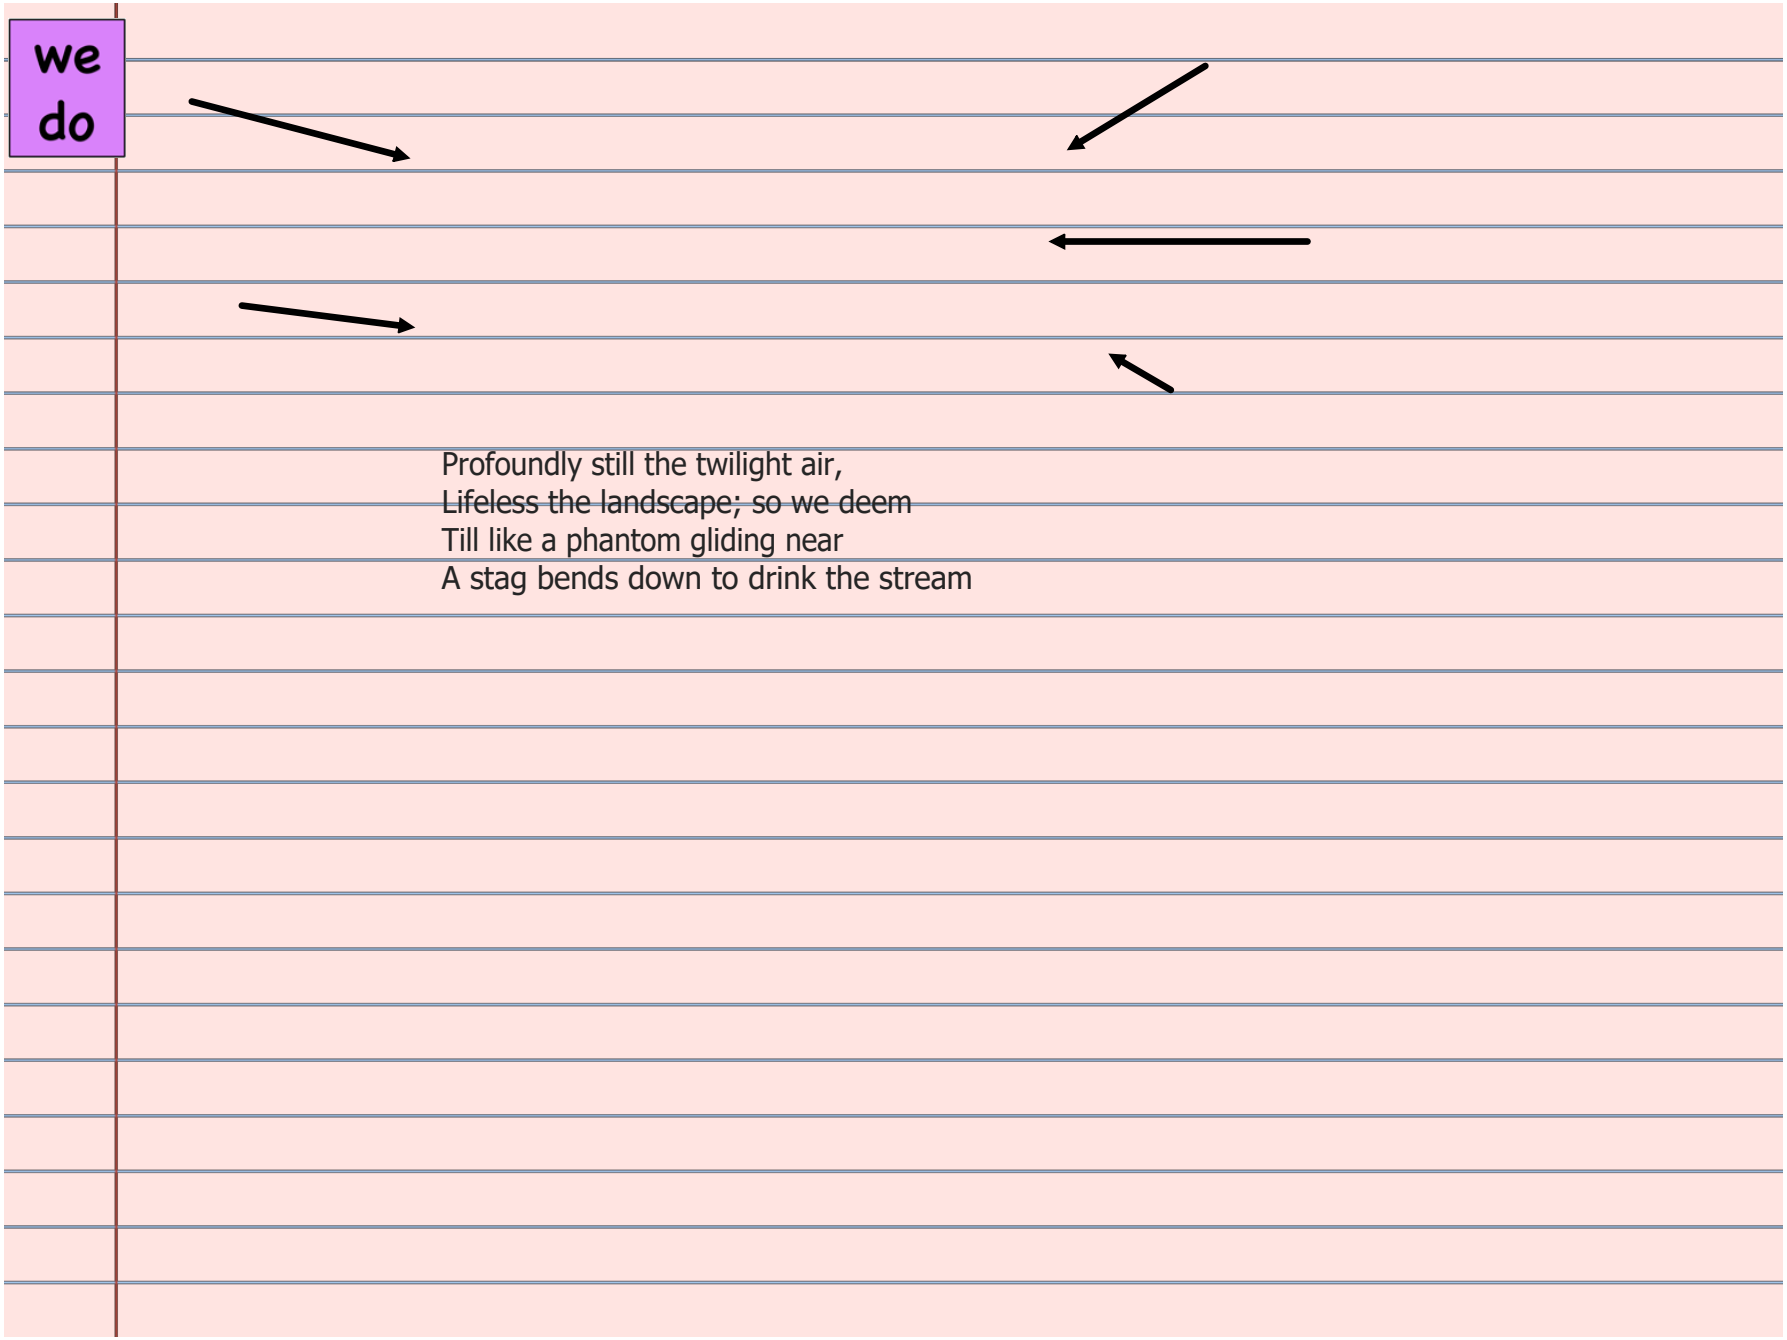

And far away a mountain zone,
A cold, white waste of snow-drifts lies,
And one star, large and soft and lone,
Silently lights the unclouded skies.

Reading

Wednesday

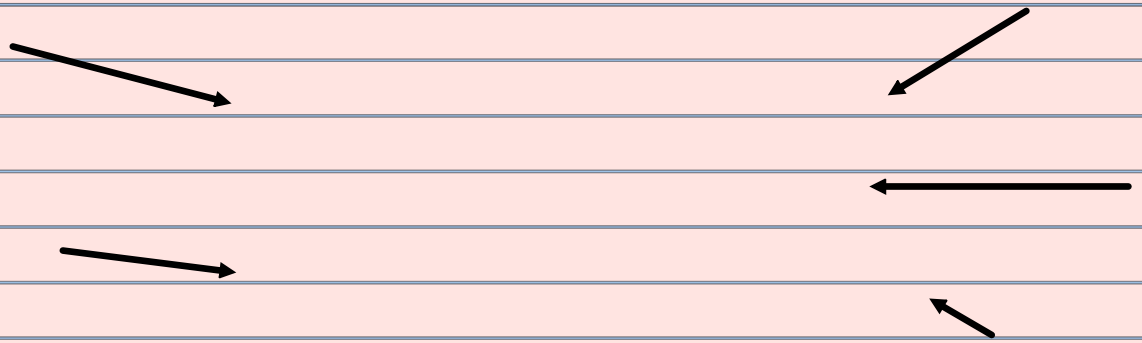

Reading

Wednesday

Reading

we do

And far away a mountain zone,
A cold, white waste of snow-drifts lies,
And one star, large and soft and lone,
Silently lights the unclouded skies.

you do

Do you think Emily Bronte enjoys the moors?

Wednesday