Answer in full sentences.

How we work

PF's mission is to show Christ's love to prisoners by coming alongside them and supporting them. We seek through prayer and practical care to help, support and develop a Christian ministry to prisoners and their families.

We do this through our network of volunteers, and have over 3,000 volunteers. We are currently involved with almost all of the 120 prisons in England and Wales.

Our aim is to have a group in place to support every prison in England and Wales. PF volunteers connect with their local group, as this is where they get a feel for PF's work and can be trained up to go into prison or volunteer in other programmes. As well as supporting prisons in prayer and running PF programmes, local groups are the primary connection with their local prison for PF.

Prayer is the basis for all that we do, and where it all started 40 years ago. All our activities are underpinned by prayer through our PF local groups, which usually meet monthly.

Our Values

Prayerfulness – everything we do is rooted in prayer, our work is an expression of our faith, and its fruit an expression of God's faithfulness – through prayer we see others as Christ sees them.
Respect – Every person has great value – can change and should be given the opportunity to change
Humility – recognising our own weakness and suffering helps us connect with each other, victims of crime and offenders.
Unity – we recognise we are part of God's bigger plan and our success depends on working closely with each other and with partners to reach more prisoners
Integrity – having little difference between what we think, what we say and what we do – aligning ourselves with our calling, honesty and good stewardship
Hope – we seek to build upon hope where it exists and help find it when it has been lost
Compassion – we move beyond empathy and are willing to help. We desire a generous spirit
Dignity – we believe that every person is made in God's image and so is worthy of respect, without condition.

What we believe

Prison Fellowship is a Christian organisation, and is part of a global movement of people motivated by their faith to transform lives and communities by bringing love in action, acting with justice and showing mercy. We work with people of all faiths and no faith, and we treat every person with respect and dignity.
We believe that no one is beyond hope, and that every life can be transformed.

Our People

Our volunteers and local groups are the core of our organisation, running our programmes and supporting prisons across England and Wales. They are supported by a small team of staff who seek to resource and equip them in their role, as well as fundraising and raising awareness of the work PF does.
