English Friday

English Friday

Question time! Answer in full sentences in your book.

1. If animals ruled the world, what changes would we see?

2. If you could be any animal, what would it be and why?

Story starter! Write the next paragraph of the story.

In the garden of life, nothing was quite as it seemed…

During the day, everything was peaceful. In fact, the garden was completely silent. The only sound that was ever heard during the day was a gentle whispering that seemed to be carried on the wind: a sweet melody of nature, celebrating the beauty of the earth and all creation.

The lady of the garden seemed to be sleeping. She lay there, motionless, all day.

Then, as the sun began to find its resting place beyond the clouds on the horizon, and darkness crept over the garden, an enormous, green eyelid suddenly opened. She was awake…

I do

Improve these sentences.

The lady was sleeping in the garden.

She had big eyes and hair.

What would improve these sentences?

we do

Improve these sentences.

The lady was sleeping in the garden.

She had big eyes and hair.

What would improve this sentence?

you do

How can you edit and improve these sentences now?

The lady was sleeping in the garden.

She had big eyes and hair.

I do

Can you use fronted adverbials in your writing?

A fronted adverbial goes at the beginning of a sentence.

It describes the verb in the sentence. It describes where, when and how.

Examples:

During the day, the animals sleep.

After sunset, the lady animals come to life.

Why do we use fronted adverbials?

How do I check I have used them correctly?

we do

Can you use fronted adverbials in your writing?

A fronted adverbial goes at the beginning of a sentence.

It describes the verb in the sentence. It describes where, when and how.

Examples:

During the day, the animals sleep.

After sunset, the lady animals come to life.

Write a sentence about the deer using a fronted adverbial - What does the fronted adverbial describe? Is it punctuated correctly?

you do

Can you use fronted adverbials in your writing?

A fronted adverbial goes at the beginning of a sentence.

It describes the verb in the sentence. It describes where, when and how.

Examples:

During the day, the animals sleep.

After sunset, the lady animals come to life.

Write 6 sentences about the picture with fronted adverbials.