

Cold Task

'How can following God bring freedom and justice?'

To help you answer the key question, break it down.

First, how do Christians follow God? What do they do to show commitment to him?

How do these acts/ways help bring them freedom?

How might it bring justice to them?

REMEMBER IT IS A COLD TASK SO YOU JUST NEED TO TRY YOUR BEST!

You have 15 minutes to complete it.

Over the next few lessons we will be learning to:
understand and explain connections between the story of Moses and the concepts of freedom and salvation.

Success Criteria:

- Recall, in order, the events of Moses life
- Explain how Moses and Pharaoh might have been feeling at this time
- Explain what they might have done in these situations

Exodus 1:8-14

Then a new king, to whom Joseph meant nothing, came to power in Egypt. "Look," he said to his people, "the Israelites have become far too numerous for us. Come, we must deal shrewdly with them or they will become even more numerous and, if war breaks out, will join our enemies, fight against us and leave the country." So they put slave masters over them to oppress them with forced labor, and they built Pithom and Rameses as store cities for Pharaoh. But the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and spread; so the Egyptians came to dread the Israelites and worked them ruthlessly. They made their lives bitter with harsh labor in brick and mortar and with all kinds of work in the fields; in all their harsh labor the Egyptians worked them ruthlessly.

Exodus 1:22

Then Pharaoh gave this order to all his people: "Every Hebrew boy that is born you must throw into the Nile, but let every girl live."

Who was Moses?

Moses was a Hebrew prophet and leader.

He was called by God to lead his people from Egypt to the promised land.

There are 8 key events in his life.

1) The basket that led to the Pharaoh's daughter

When Moses was born, the Israelites were slaves in Egypt. The Pharaoh was afraid of them because he thought they might take over his country. He ordered his soldiers to kill all baby boys at birth so they would not grow up to fight him.

To save Moses, his mother made a plan. She put him in a basket and set him adrift on the River Nile and left his fate to God's will. Moses floated down the river where the Pharaoh's daughter found and rescued him. She brought him back to the palace and he was raised there.

2) Killing of the taskmaster

In the course of time Moses grew up. Then he went to see his own people and watched them suffering under forced labor. He saw a Hebrew, one of his own people, being beaten by an Egyptian. He looked all around, and when he didn't see anyone, he beat the Egyptian to death and hid the body in the sand.

When Moses went there the next day, he saw two Hebrew men fighting. He asked the one who started the fight, "Why are you beating another Hebrew?" The man asked, "Who made you our ruler and judge? Are you going to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?" Then Moses was afraid and thought that everyone knew what he had done.

3) Fleeing Egypt

When Pharaoh heard what Moses had done, he tried to have him killed. But Moses fled from Pharaoh and settled in the land of Midian.

4) The Burning Bush

Moses lived in the land of Midian and worked as a shepherd for forty years. One day, in the desert, he heard the voice of God from a burning bush. God asked Moses to lead his people out of slavery in Egypt to the Promised Land.

4) The Burning Bush

What adjectives could we use to describe how Moses might have been feeling when God appeared to him?
