The Store Full of Magical Things

By Rutendo Tavengerwei

ABC

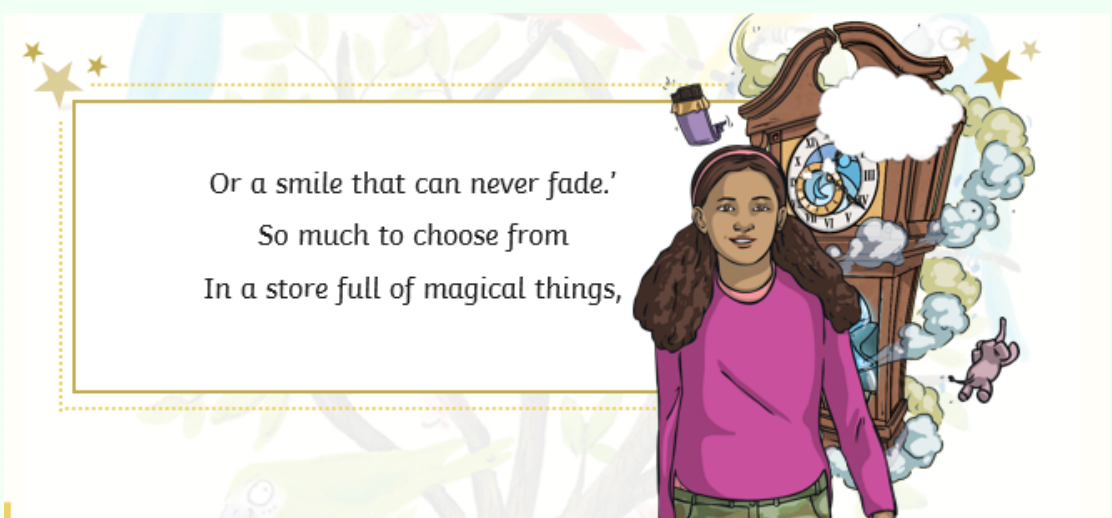

ABC

'There is a clock that can send you anywhere
in the world,
An elephant that can fly,
A bar of chocolate that you can never finish ...

Or a smile that can never fade.'
So much to choose from
In a store full of magical things,

ABC

But once I looked at it,
I knew what I would take home with me,
What I take with me everywhere

ABC

What I am sending now to you,
A smile that can never fade
A smile that can never fade.

ABC

Answer these!

- 1) Why do you think the girl chose a 'smile that could never fade'?
- 2) Name two more items the poem tells us you can buy from the store full of magical things.
- 3) Who was the old man?
- 4) How did the girl describe the old man's voice?
- 5) What else do you imagine you could buy?

Now write your own poem named 'The Store of Magical Things'.

If you are stuck, use the worksheets to help you.
