

Friday 25th September 2020

L.O: To use adverb sentence openers.

What is an Adverb?

An adverb is something that tells you where, why or how something is done. For example:

Camilla crossed the road safely.

Saffie's horse bravely jumped over the hurdle.

The Moroccan man rode his camel everywhere.

Many adverbs end in -ly but not all of them. Similarly, not all words which end in -ly are adverbs.

Sort the Adverbs

Keeping in mind that 'an adverb is something that tells you where, why or how something is done', sort the following words into the correct boxes:

Adverbs

Not Adverbs

angrily

lonely ugly

cruelly never very well friendly

the bully

Circle the adverbs in these sentences. Don't forget to the add the correct punctuation too!

make sure you climb the ladder safely cautiously she looked at her friend

lets go play out quickly

Starting a sentence with an adverb adds to the description.

Carefully, Miss Rhodes turned over the page.

Look at how the sentence is punctuated.

Write a sentence, starting with an adverb, to describe the picture.

Don't forget your punctuation!

Write a recount of the La Luna story from start to finish.

Can you include everything we have looked at this week?

- Starting a sentence with an adverb
- Starting a sentence with a simile.
- Using adverbial phrases.
- Including dialogue.

If you haven't watched the clip, write a story based on the picture below. Can you include everything we have looked at this week?

Don't forget, an adult at home can e-mail your work for us to have a look at and comment!

We would love to see the work you are doing at home.