

Friday 25th September 2020

LO: To make predictions from details stated and implied.

Look at the picture on the following page. Write down any details you notice. Then answer the questions.

The image shows the letters 'A', 'B', and 'C' in a large, stylized, and colorful font. The 'A' is red, the 'B' is green, and the 'C' is blue. They are positioned in the bottom left corner of the page, with a slight shadow effect behind them.

Photo Credit: Jen Betton

Moon Garden

- What is the boy doing?
- Who are the other people in the background?
- Where are they?
- What time of day is it? How do you know?
- Why are the people all here so late?
- Why does one man have his arm in the air? Why does a woman have her hand to her face? What might they be saying?
- Can you tell anything about how the boy is feeling?
- Where is he going?
- What is he going to do with the flower?
- Why is the picture called 'Moon Garden'?

The letters 'A', 'B', and 'C' are displayed in a stylized, rounded font. The 'A' is red, the 'B' is green, and the 'C' is blue. They are positioned in the bottom left corner of the page, overlapping slightly.

Here are the next pictures in the story. Were your predictions correct?

Can you write a short story using all three images?

ABC