

Skim over the text.

What genre of text do you think this is?

Why do you think that?

Tuesday 4th May 2021

L.O: To express my opinion of a poem.

Amy Lowell

Imagist Poet

Imagism

- Poetry written that evokes pictures or images for the reader
- Direct presentation of images, or word pictures
- Word choice is specific
- Adjectives are used to enhance the specificity of word choice, BUT they are not over-used.
- Attempt to freeze a single moment in time and capture the emotions of that moment
- Imagist poetry often reflect influences of haiku or tanka

meandering	following a winding path
spanned	extend across
streamlets	a small stream
thread	something small connects
torrent	a strong, fast-moving stream

Torrent

Streamlet

Read the poem in pairs.

As you read, highlight the words from the glossary.

meandering	following a winding path
spanned	extend across
streamlets	a small stream
thread	something small connects
torrent	a strong, fast-moving stream

What were your first impressions? What pictures are building in your head?

I do

Complete the sentence stems below.

We do

My favourite part of the poem was _____ _____ because _____

My least favourite part of the poem was _____

_____ because _____

What were your first impressions? What pictures are building in your head?

You do

Complete the sentence stems below.

My favourite part of the poem was _____

_____ because _____

My least favourite part of the poem was

_____ because _____

