

Monday 5th July 2021

L.O: To understand the impact of Ancient Islamic Civilisation on word etymology

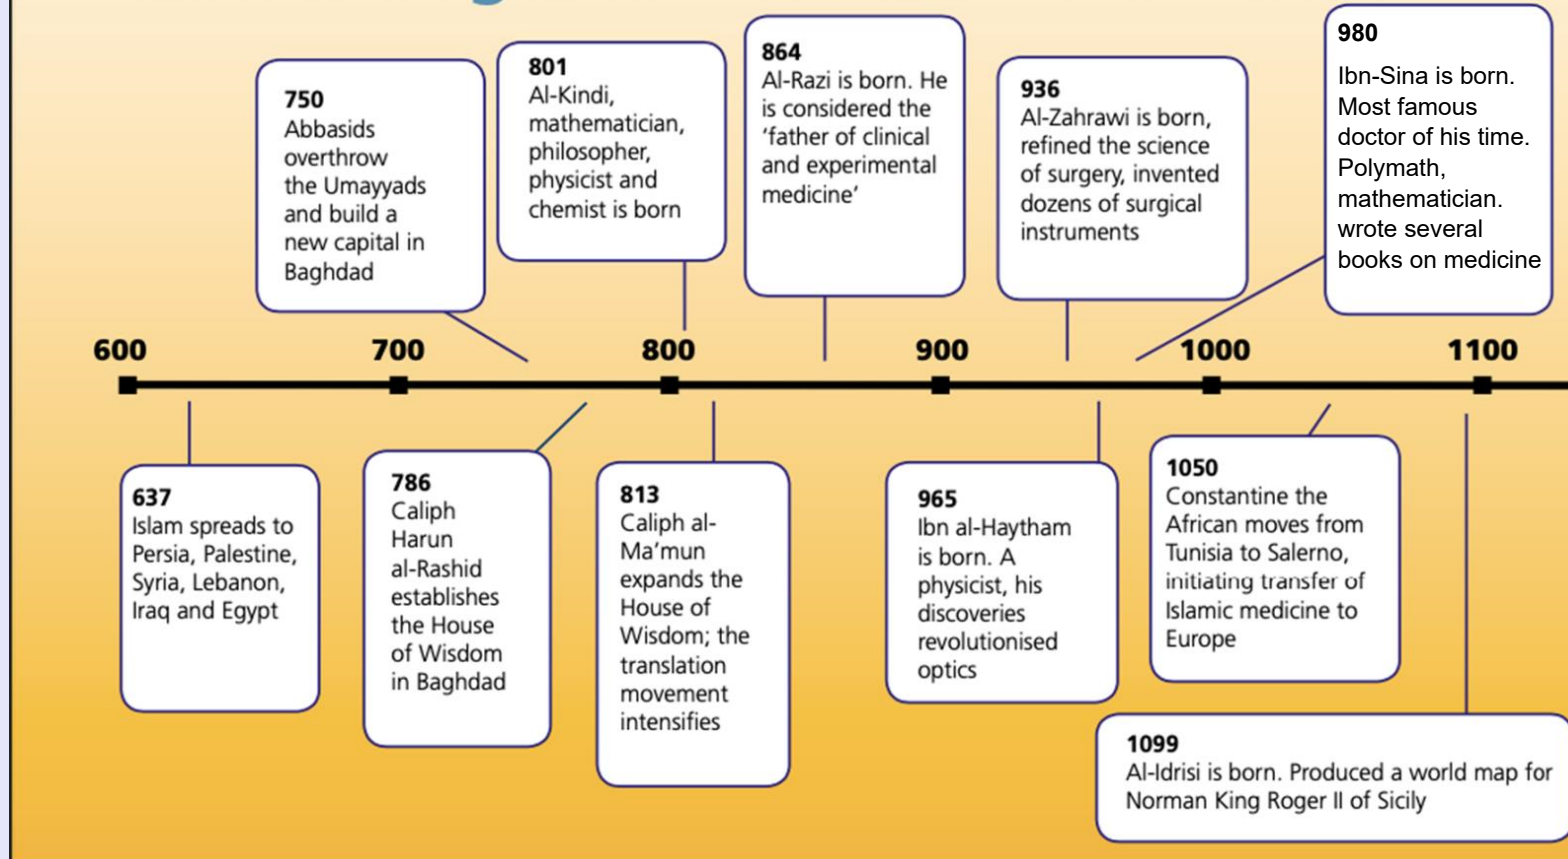

L.O.: To understand the contribution of Ancient Islamic Civilisation to the modern world

Starter

Islamic scholars made many advancements in the field of medicine. Ibn Sina wrote _____ on different subjects including 40 on medicine. He began to practice and learn about medicine when he was _____ old. Another scholar, Al-Zahrawi was regarded as 'the _____ of surgery'. Al-Zahrawi's special achievements include the development of _____ and his use of catgut in _____.

cauterisation	father	16 years	stitches	450 books
---------------	--------	----------	----------	-----------

Golden Ages of Islamic Civilisation

Read the text, 'We all speak a little bit of Arabic'

As you read, try answering these key question
(highlight your answers in the text)

- What does presence of Arabic words in English shows us?
- Most of the Arabic words come through to English from which languages?
- What was the original meaning of word 'magazine' in Italian?
- When was the gentleman's magazine first published?

We Do

Many of the words used in English have their origins in Arabic, let's explore some words.

You Do

Use your iPad to find more words that originated from Arabic and complete the table

Etymology Activity

Use your text or an iPad to find some Arabic words that we use in English today. Find more information about these words on www.etymonline.com to complete the table below:

[illegible]

We Do

What is the contribution of Ancient Islamic Civilisation to the modern world?

Look back in your book at discuss with your partner what we have learned about Ancient Islamic Civilisation this half term?

Let's make some notes on the flip chart.

You Do

What is the contribution of Ancient Islamic Civilisation to the modern world?

Summarise what we have learned in your books to answer the question.