

A welcome message from Mr Lacey and Mrs Chamberlain

We hope you had a lovely holiday! We can't believe we are in our final term! We have a fun filled few weeks ahead of us, and we can't wait to get stuck in!

Key Learning:

- ENGLISH: this half term we will be looking at writing a scary and suspense story.
- Reading: We will be reading the book 'Kick' by Mitch Johnson, learning about the main character Budi living in the slums of Malaysia.
- MATHS: In Maths we will be working on the following topics: Statistics, Shape & Position and Direction.
- HISTORY: We are studying the legacy of the ancient Greek civilisation.
- RE: Our key question is How can following God bring freedom and justice?
- SCIENCE: Forces and Space: Unbalanced forces
- PSHE: Our PSHE topic is all about changes as we grow older.
- ART: Friedensreich Hundertwasser inspires our art this term looking at the way in which he depicts buildings.

Key Information/ Friendly Reminders

- PE will continue to be on a Monday and children can come to school in their PE kit. PE kit is black shorts/ joggers, white t- shirt, black hoodie and black trainers (No coloured tracksuits or character clothing)
- Even though the weather is starting to improve, children still need to bring a coat everyday as the weather can be unpredictable. If it is very warm please apply suncream before school rather than sending it into school.
- Please bring reading books to school every day – these will be changed on a Monday
