Tuesday

This week we are going to be writing our own story about a t-rex who came to Clayton. In school we have chosen to write about a t-rex that came to Clayton Park!

Today you need to plan your story. Complete the boxing up grid below to help you think about the characters in your story and where they will go.

Characters	Setting- where will they go?	What will they see there?

Complete the boxing up grid below to help you think about what will happen in each part of your story.
