

Monday, 7th May 2021

L.O: To know and understand Fairtrade

Starter

Cotton is grown in the fields in _____. This cotton is then sent to _____, where the cotton weavers turn it into cloth and then it is sent to _____. It takes _____ for the cloth to arrive in Kenya. Once the cloth is in Kenya, they add shape, patterns and they dye it to turn the cloth into a pair of Jeans. It takes a total of _____ for the Jeans to finally arrive in shops.

60 days

China

Bangladesh

120 days

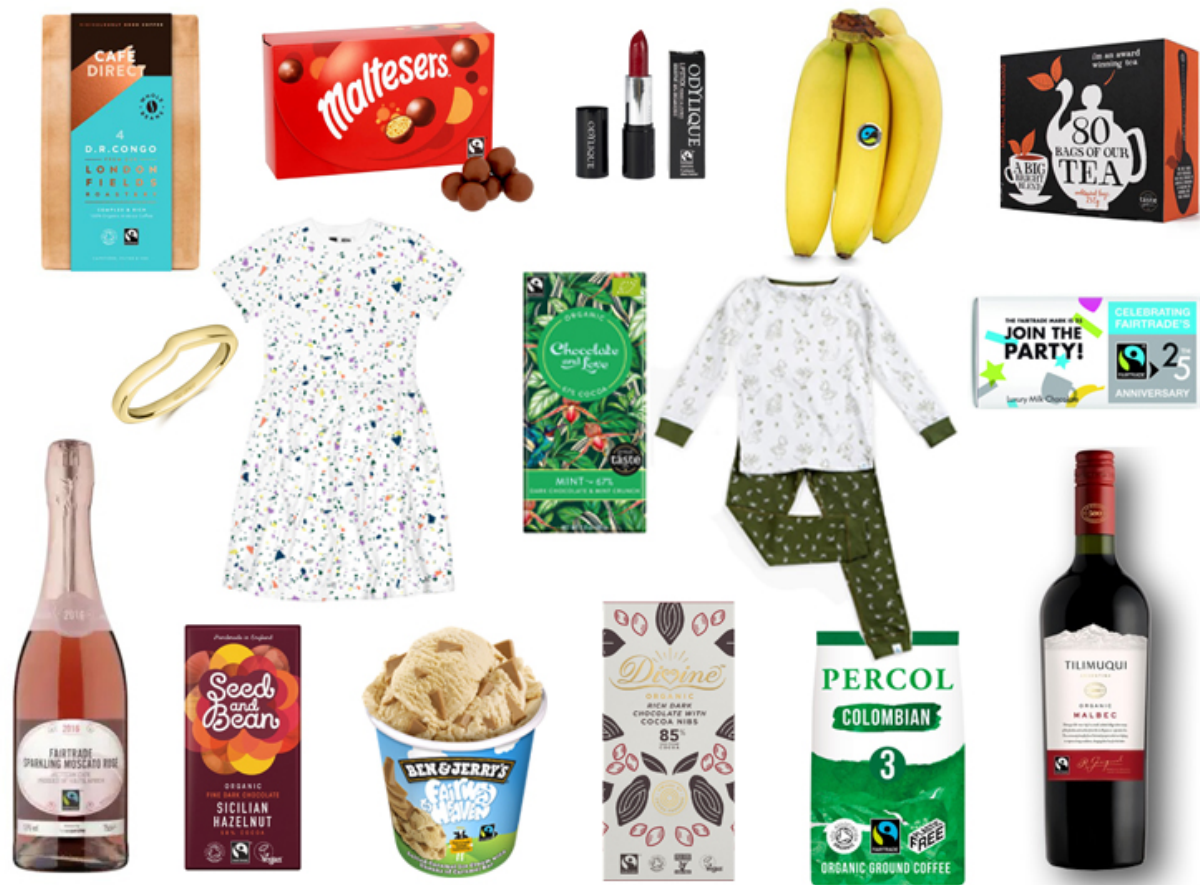

Kenya

Read the text, 'Fairtrade - What's it all about?' in pairs

As you read, answer these questions in your books.

1. Name TWO facts about Fairtrade from the first three paragraphs.
2. State TWO reasons Fairtrade is a fairer deal for workers.
3. Highlight all the connective phrases that are used in this article.
4. Write out the sentence which proves that the writer thinks that Fairtrade is a good idea.

What is Fairtrade?

The 'Banana Split'

Round 1

Mireya
Banana worker

Daniel
Plantation owner

Frank
Shipper

Tom Importer

Ayah
Supermarket buyer

The 'Banana Split'

Round 2

Mireya
Banana worker

Daniel
Plantation owner

Frank
Shopper, dad

Tom
Importer

Ayah
*Supermarket
buyer*

What do you think?

In your book, write what do you understand by Fairtrade (you can use your text to help).

How do you feel about how different people are treated in the process of trade and what can we (the customers) can do to help?

