ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ

Why use short sentences?

Short sentences are useful when the writer needs to emphasise feelings, create a mood or create suspense.

They help in creating tension, haste or urgency in creative writing.

We must use a combination of short and long sentences to make our writing more interesting

Hoping to find the answer to the riddle, Ali went to House of Wisdom (the biggest library in the world). It was very quite. Outside, guards made sure that only the scholars could enter this famous, prestigious library. He was nervous. Slowly, he approached the entrance, where the guard stood like a mountain, blocking his way.

Curiously, Ali looked around the market. It was busy. Crowds everywhere. Determined, he continued to search for clues. The shop keeper, who was selling carpets, told Ali that Flying Carpets are just stories. Just then, he was approached by someone who said, "Do you want to know about flying carpets? Come with me." Ali was in two minds! Should he go? Should he say no?

In your books, describe these pictures using short and long sentences.
