

Home Learning Video Link

 <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rpak6ktsux4>

ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ

Friday 6th November 2020

LO: To use modal verbs.

Starter

Modal Verbs for Ability

Can you spot the modal verbs in these sentences?

Marie can dance gracefully.

Jamie can ride his bike without stabilisers.

I cannot swim well.

The choir can sing beautifully.

Zara cannot do the splits yet.

The dog can catch a frisbee.

Sort them into positive and negative sentences.

Positive

Negative

Using Modal Verbs to Indicate Possibility

You can show degrees of possibility by using modal verbs.

I could try harder to keep my room tidy.

should must can might will won't

Modal verbs are used with the infinitive form of another verb. e.g.

modal verb

might be

infinitive of the verb 'to be'

One day he might be King.

Modal Verbs can be split into groups with similar usage:

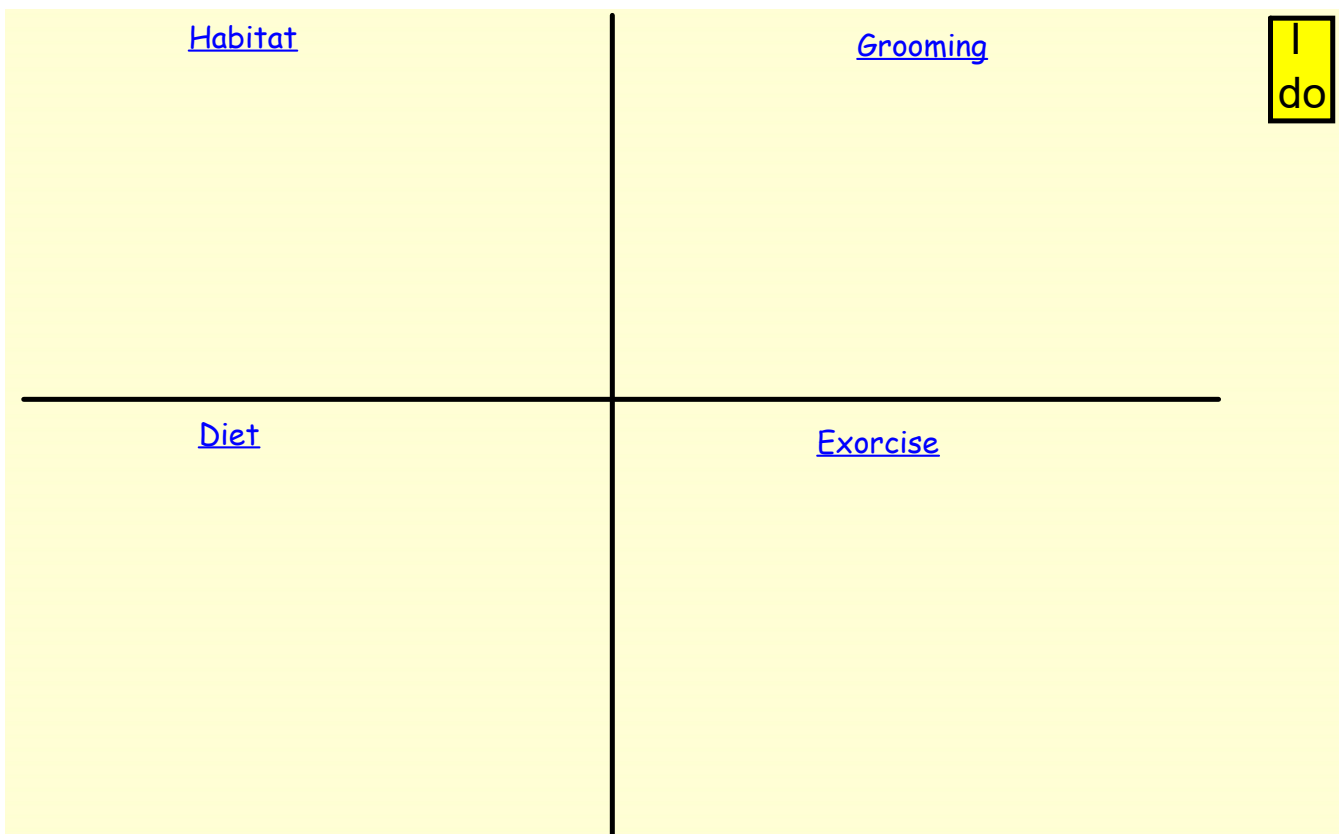

Obligation	Certainty	Ability
should	will	can
must	would	could
ought	might
	may shall

Watch The Lost Thing until 7:10

Read up until the line 'it was a real dilemma'.

ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ

Use modal verbs in the passive voice to write sentences about the lost thing for each category. EG: It should never be fed more than twice a day - what category would this go in?

Habitat	Grooming
Diet	Exercise

We do

Use modal verbs in the passive voice to write sentences about the lost thing for each category. EG: It should never be fed more than twice a day - what category would this go in?

Now, add an additional clause/phrase to the beginning of the sentence using conjunctions OR prepositions. EG: Although it may beg for more food, it should never be fed more than twice a day.

Habitat	Grooming
You could take it to the zoo so you can visit it.	If I were you, you should make sure it is fresh and clean.
Diet	Exercise
You must feed it a healthy diet. You could feed it fruit, lettuce and oil.

You
Do

Write one sentence for each category in your books. Remember to use modal verbs and an additional clause/phrase using conjunctions EG: Although it may beg for more food, it should never be fed more than twice a day.

I
do

Write an explanation on how to care for it the language of possibility (modal verbs) we explored earlier. You may use subheadings such as the ones in our chart to help you.

Might

Might not

May

May not

Will

Will not

Ought

Ought not

Could

Could not

Should

Should not

Let's create our own lost thing.

We
do

Write an explanation on how to care for it the language of possibility (modal verbs) we explored earlier. You may use subheadings such as the ones in our chart to help you.

Might

Might not

May

May not

Will

Will not

Ought

Ought not

Could

Could not

Should

Should not

Let's create our own lost thing.

Write an explanation on how to care for it the language of possibility (modal verbs) we explored earlier. You may use subheadings such as the ones in our chart to help you.

Might

Might not

May

May not

Will

Will not

Ought

Ought not

Could

Could not

Should

Should not

