

Friday 8th January 2021

5ARE

English: The Tin Forest

LO: To write dialogue between two characters.

ABC

On your whiteboards write the letter of the sentence which is punctuated correctly.

- A. "what did you have for your breakfast today" asked Charlie.
- B. "What did you have for your breakfast today!" asked charlie
- C. "What did you have for your breakfast today?" asked Charlie.
- D. "What did you have for your breakfast today?" asked Charlie.

If work from yesterday is not complete, finish this first.

Remember to use the working wall to help you.

ABC

Home learners copy and paste

 <https://youtu.be/uoE9ET6CtaI>

ABC

Read the text. Write the sentence of reported speech as direct speech.

Who said what?

Direct speech uses speech marks around what is actually said.

Example: "I'm going swimming tomorrow," said Katie.

Reported speech has no speech marks and is in the past tense.

Example: Katie said that she was going swimming tomorrow.

Rewrite the following as direct speech:

Miss Wood told the class that there would be no outdoor play today because it was raining too hard.

ABC

I
do

Read the text. Write the sentence of reported speech as direct speech.

Who said what?

Direct speech uses speech marks around what is actually said.

Example: "I'm going swimming tomorrow," said Katie.

Reported speech has no speech marks and is in the past tense.

Example: Katie said that she was going swimming tomorrow.

Mum told the children to go upstairs and tidy their bedrooms before they had their tea.

We
do

ABC

Read the text. Write the sentence of reported speech as direct speech.

You
do

Who said what?

Direct speech uses speech marks around what is actually said.

Example: "I'm going swimming tomorrow," said Katie.

Reported speech has no speech marks and is in the past tense.

Example: Katie said that she was going swimming tomorrow.

1. Dad told Alex that he would not be allowed to go out on his bike after dark until his lights were mended at the weekend.
2. Alice asked her Mum if she could go to the cinema and also if she could have some pocket money to buy an ice-cream.
3. I asked if anyone had found my pen and Sophie asked which one I had lost. I told her it was my red one.

ABC

You are a journalist interviewing the old man from The Tin Forest. Write a few lines of speech from the interview.

I
do

ABC

You are a journalist interviewing the old man from The Tin Forest. Write a few lines of speech from the interview.

We
do

ABC

You are a journalist interviewing the old man from The Tin Forest.

Write the interview in your books using speech. Remember to use the correct punctuation.

You
do

ABC