Sparta was one of the most powerful city-states in Ancient Greece. It is famous for its powerful army as well as its battles with the city-state of Athens during the Peloponnesian War. Sparta was located in a valley on the banks of the Eurotas River in the south-eastern portion of Greece.

In your pairs, one of you will have a text describing Ancient Greek school life in Athens and the other in Sparta.

Read the text, if you find any of the following information - highlight it!

- School life for boys
- School life for girls
- Equipment used at school
- Any other activities

A student and a teacher practicing the flute.

Fill in the table using your given text.

Now you have finished, share the information with a partner.

This should help them fill in their table.

Stick your table into your books.

Now we are going to write a diary entry based on the information we have found.

You are going to write from the point of view of a child in an Ancient Greek school. You can choose to be a girl or a boy.

The text you started with, is the school you need to attend.

Now I am going to model a diary entry.

Your diary entry must be at least 1/2 a page.
