

Friday 19th March 2021

L.O: To answer questions by using evidence from the text.

Benchmarking!

Can you move up a level?

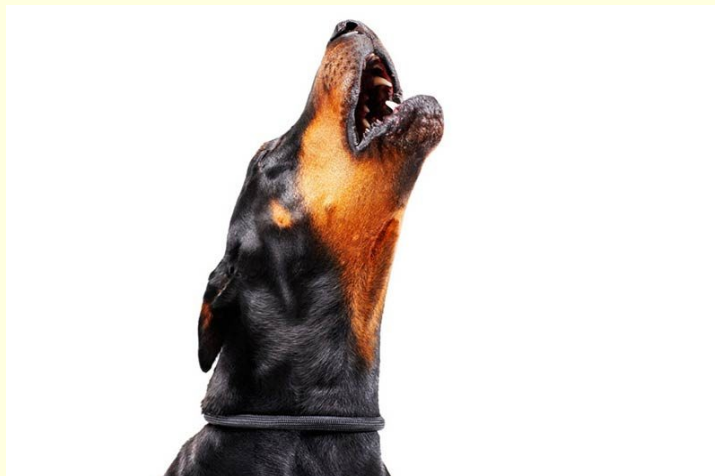

The text this week is

'Charlie.'

Scan over the text.

What type of text do you think it will be?

Read the text out loud.

Without looking back, can you retell
the text?

The name 'Charlie' is written in a black, cursive script font. It has a white outline and a soft grey drop shadow, giving it a sticker-like appearance. The text is centered within a light grey rectangular area, which is itself centered on a larger yellow rectangular background.

Inferential

Why did the children think the dog belonged to the elderly man?

I

do

Applied knowledge

If you were in Brent's position, describe how you would protect a younger sister or brother.

We

do

1. What made the children think that the dog was ferocious?
2. What were two things that showed Angie was scared of the dog?
3. How do you know that Brent was also afraid of the dog?
4. How did Angie feel when she realised the elderly man had a bird and not a ferocious dog?
5. Explain why an elderly man would keep a bird that could bark like a ferocious dog.
6. Replace the verb 'emerged' in this sentence: The owner emerged with a cockatoo.

1. What made the children think that the dog was ferocious?

(because they heard a savage growl)

2. What were two things that showed Angie was scared of the dog?

(She said she was scared. / She hid behind her brother. / She clung to her brother's arm. /

She shook with fear.)

3. How do you know that Brent was also afraid of the dog?

(He didn't want to come face-to-face with it. / He pictured the dog attacking them. /

He suggested they run across to the other side of the street.)

4. How did Angie feel when she realised the elderly man had a bird and not a ferocious dog?

(She felt relieved. / She was no longer frightened.)

5. Explain why an elderly man would keep a bird that could bark like a ferocious dog.

(to let people think he had a dog / to protect himself)

6. . Replace the verb 'emerged' in this sentence: The owner emerged with a cockatoo.

(came out / appeared / came into view)

