

Tuesday 8th June 2021

LO: To organise the events in chronological order

ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ

Read through the text again with your partner.

Highlight any dates or years that you come across and identify the events that took place at that time

ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ

Where does this event sit chronologically?
(Remember to think about what strategy you could use)

I
Do

In 1176 the wooden bridge across the Thames was replaced with a stone one.

ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ

We Do

Where does this event sit chronologically?
(Remember to think about what strategy you could use)

The last Roman soldier left Britain in 407 AD.

ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ

Order the below events chronologically
(Remember to think about what strategy you could use)

You
do

William was crowned king of England at Westminster on 25 December 1066.

Early in the 8th century a writer called London 'a trading centre for many nations who visit by land and sea'

Edward the Confessor (1042-1066) built a wooden palace at Westminster

By the 10th century there were wine merchants from France at Vintners Place and German merchants at Dowgate.

In 597 monks from Rome began the task of converting the Saxons to Christianity.

Disaster struck London in 842 when the Danes looted London

ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ

Answers

1. (We do) The last Roman soldier left Britain in 407 AD.
2. In 597 monks from Rome began the task of converting the Saxons to Christianity.
3. Early in the 8th century a writer called London 'a trading centre for many nations who visit by land and sea'
4. Disaster struck London in 842 when the Danes looted London
5. By the 10th century there were wine merchants from France at Vintners Place and German merchants at Dowgate.
6. Edward the Confessor (1042-1066) built a wooden palace at Westminster
7. William was crowned king of England at Westminster on 25 December 1066.
8. (I do) In 1176 the wooden bridge across the Thames was replaced with a stone one.