L.O: To write a diary.

You will need the pictures from the slides printed and put on the Working Wall before the lesson.

Make predictions based on:

- the characters
- the setting
- the story

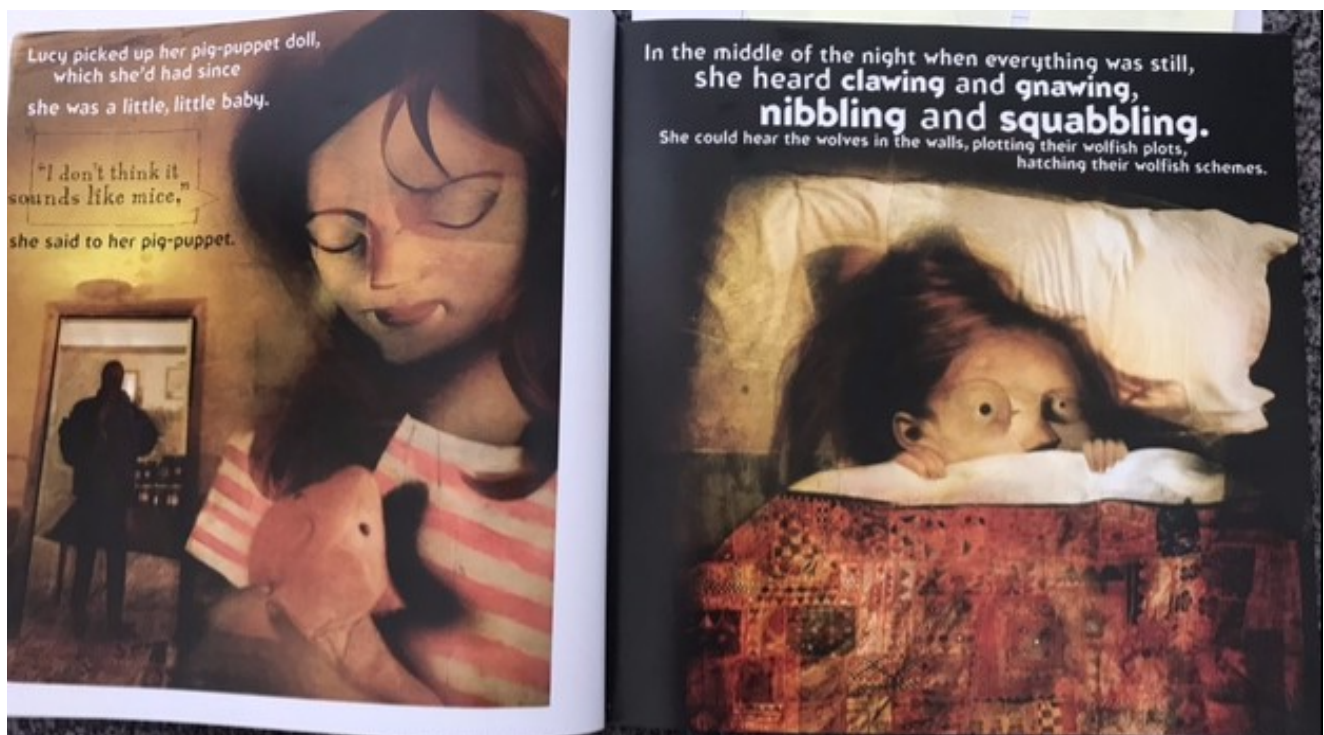

Thinking Together

Let's read the text together.

We do

On whiteboards, summarise the story so far in no more than 20 words.

Lucy heard noises inside the walls. She told her mum. She didn't believe her. Lucy could not sleep.

How is Lucy feeling at this point of the story?

Why is she feeling this way?

I do

What emotions could we use to describe?

How can we make sure we are using the best vocabulary possible?

Let's add our suggestions to the picture on the Working Wall.

Let's add our suggestions to the picture on the Working Wall.

We are going to write a diary entry, from the point of view of Lucy.

She will recall the events up to this point.

What is the purpose of a diary?

What features will we need to include?

I will write a diary entry based on the first 2 pages of the book.

I do

Dear Diary,

I do

Today has been an unusual day. I was wondering around the house (extremely bored) with nothing to do. Surprisingly, everything was silent. Stepping into the kitchen, I could smell the sweet scent of my mum's homemade jam. She was putting it into pots. I knew where my father was, he was playing the tuba at his job - I am so glad he doesn't play this at home! My brother, who is been super annoying today, was in the living room playing his stupid video games!

Then I heard it...

We do

Write the next 3 sentences of the diary.

Use the information from the next page from the book to help you.

The emotions on the Working Wall are also there to help you.

Then I heard it...

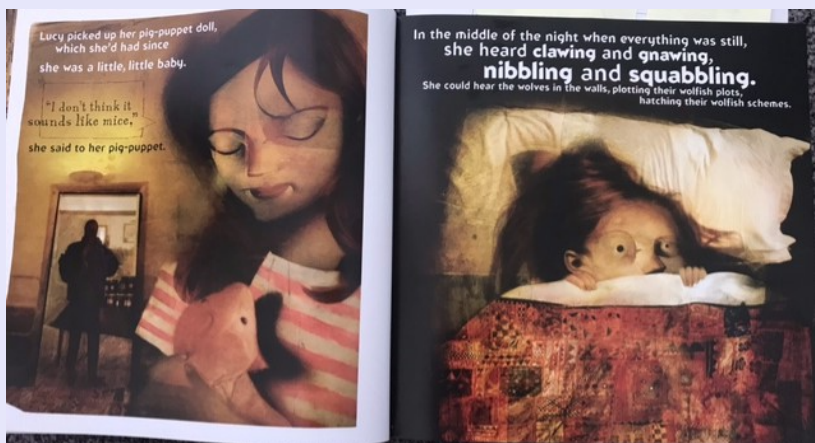

Remember:

- Emotions
- Short sentences for effect
- Parenthesis
- Relative clauses

You Do

Write a diary entry from the point of view of Lucy. Start from the beginning of the story to when she is in bed.

Your diary must have at least 3 paragraphs and a full page in length.

Remember:

- Emotions
- Short sentences for effect
- Parenthesis
- Relative clauses
