Without looking back, can you retell
the text?

Why might Dad have had to contact the race promoters?

I
do

Why wouldn't the engine start?

We
do

1. Why was there an atmosphere of tension in the workshop?

2. Why did Max feel his dad wouldn't be able to focus if he was hovering around?

3. How can you tell that Max and his dad are good friends?

4. Why was a transporter needed to get the car to the race track?

5. When Max diagnosed the problem, why did Dad call him Dr Max?

6. Replace the noun 'tension' in this sentence: Max could sense the rising tension in the air.

1. Why was there an atmosphere of tension in the workshop?

(because time was running out and Dad couldn't fix the problem.)

2. Why did Max feel his dad wouldn't be able to focus if he was hovering around?

(He thought he would distract his dad.)

3. How can you tell that Max and his dad are good friends?

(Max knew when to be helpful and he understood Dad's feelings. / Dad was pleased with Max and complimented him.)

4. Why was a transporter needed to get the car to the race track?

(The car was too big to go on a trailer. / The car was not registered to be driven on the road.)

5. When Max diagnosed the problem, why did Dad call him Dr Max?

(Doctors diagnose patients' illnesses and Max had diagnosed a problem with the car.)

6. Replace the noun 'tension' in this sentence: Max could sense the rising tension in the air.

(anxiety / stress / nervousness / strain / pressure)
