L.O: To design a blog

What is a blog?

A blog is an online diary where someone can post on the Internet for others to read.

What style do you write a blog?

Blogs are usually conversational, chatty and informal.

The blogging website

We will be creating our blogs on Blogger.com

We do

What will our blog be about?

We will be writing our blog on:

‘What I have done at school this week.’

What kind of things can we write in our blogs?

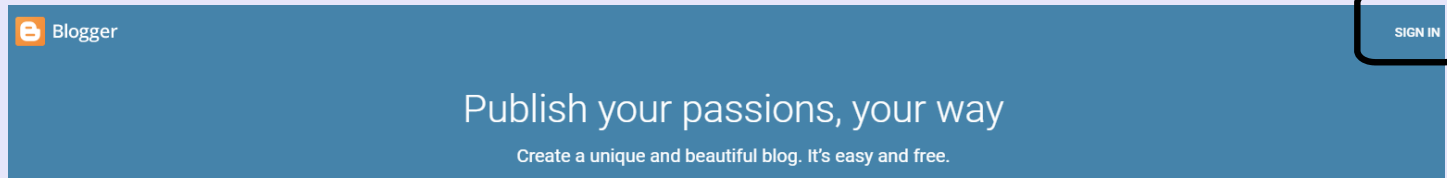

On your whiteboards list the things you can write about in your blog.

Where can I collect my ideas?

Make bullet points of your thoughts and the things you wish to share on your blog in your morning book.
