

Thursday 8th October 2020

L.O: To identify simple sentences.

To identify compound sentences.

Starter

Improve the sentence below.

the ground shakes

What is a simple sentence?

Simple Sentences - Contain a subject and a verb.

What is a compound sentence?

Compound Sentences – Contain a subject, a verb and a conjunction.

<https://youtu.be/ATKdcnTiwFE>

 <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OjiFdT0bF-w>

 <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=w6jWiE7CvSk>

Underline the verbs in one colour.

I
do

Subject in another colour.

we
do

Any conjunctions you can identify in another colour.

you
do

① - verbs

② - subject

③ - conjunctions

S The ground shakes. C The ~~sea~~ swarm with living things but nothing is living on this land. S The land folds, buckles as it twists. Little leafless plants grow in damp places because now some things are living on the land. Rain falls on the jagged edges of the rocks.

Worm- like creatures burrow in moss jungles. The current eases the rock through swamps where fish haul themselves out of the water. The river drops the pebble onto the beach. A slab tumbles down a cliff. The surface of the earth begins to rise whereas the layers of rock start lifting above the water.

⓪ - verbs

⓪ - subject

⓪ - conjunctions

Spot the simple sentences.

Underline all the simple sentences in one colour.

Simple Sentences - Contain a subject and a verb.

Spot the compound sentences.

Underline all the compound sentences in one colour.

Compound Sentences - Contain a subject, a verb and a conjunction.