Thursday

As your time in Reception comes to an end we would like you to think about your best memory from this year.

Can you draw a picture and write a sentence about your favourite thing this year?

My favourite memory was watching all of Reception performing the Nativity and feeling really proud watching you all.

We look forward to hearing your favourite memories.