Reading!

LO: To retrieve answers from the text

Brief outline of the text:

Sherlock holmes is a very famous detective. He is fictional and was created by a man named Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Conan Doyle wrote many books about the famous detective. This one is called 'A study in scarlet'. It is told from the point of view of Sherlock's companion (sidekick) Doctor John Watson.
In some parts of the book, it gives you a definition of a word to help you.

Glossary:

- occurrences - events.
- impact - changes something.
- pension - money you get when you retire from a job
- lodgings - places to live
- hailed - called
- chemical laboratory - A place where scientists complete experiments using chemicals.
- constant - All the time
- companion - partner you spend time with
- decent - good
- trivial - not important
- studious - someone who enjoys learning
- hesitate - pause and think
- mulled - thought
- Bunsen burner - a piece of equipment that makes a flame. Like a strong lighter or match.

Questions

1. Why does Dr Watson need a place to live?
2. Why does Dr Watson think him and Sherlock will get along?
3. Why does Stamford describe Sherlock as 'cold-blooded'?
4. How do you think Sherlcok knows john has been to Afghanistan?