Monday 23rd November

LO: To retrieve key information from an inforation text

Brief outline:

An information text about the strange and wonderful animals found in our oceans.

Glossary:

Camouflaged - hiding by covering up.

Cunning - showing a skill

Extensions - lengthening and stretching out.

Predators - Hunts for prey

Quirky - having a unexpected trait

Tropical - humid and hot climate

Unique - one of a kind

Oct 29-16:45

Questions:

What did David Attenborough say about the Leafy sea dragon?
Where is the Christmas tree worm found?

Sep 30-20:10

Tuesday 24th November

LO: To retrieve key information from an information text

I DO: What do Leafy sea dragons eat?

WE DO: Describe the Christmas Tree worm.

YOU DO: What is different about the northern stargazer?

YOU DO: How do Red handfish move?

YOU DO: What does the Wobblegong look like?

Wednesday 25th November

LO: To retrieve key information from an information text.

I DO: Why is it called the Christmas tree worm?

WE DO: How does the Northern Stargazer hunt?

YOU DO: Why are they called Red handfish?

YOU DO: Why do Wobbegong camouflage itself?

YOU DO: Which creature is your favourite and why?

Thursday 26th November

LO: To identify questions asked in the text

What is a question mark?

Find them in the text.

Write questions about the animals in the text.

Sep 30-20:14

Friday 27th November

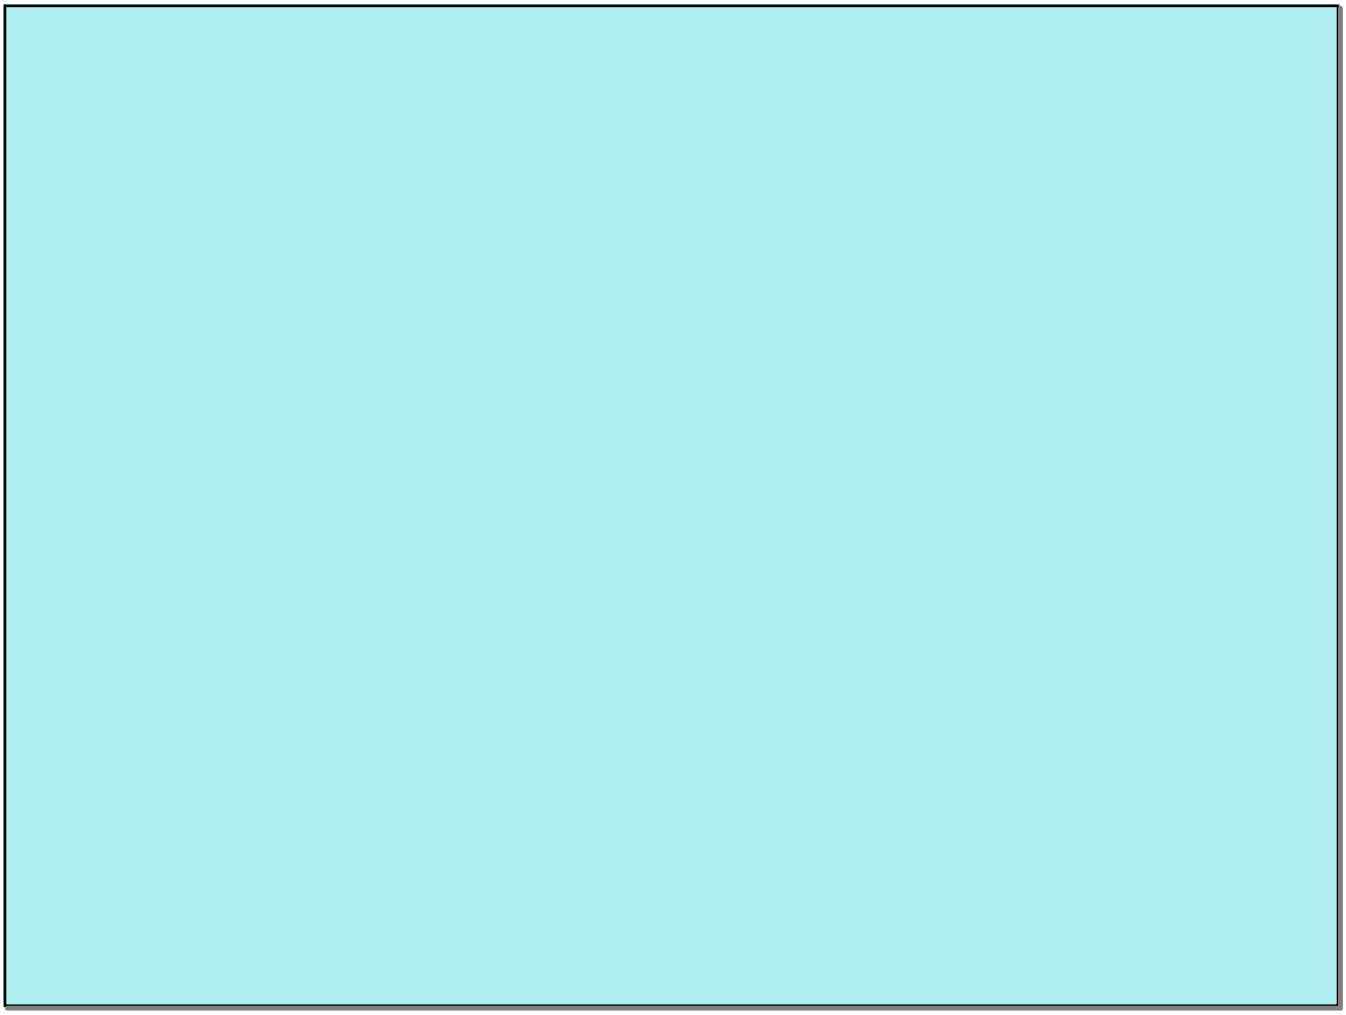

LO: To break down the sentence structure

Who? What? Where? When? Why? How? Conjunctions

I DO: Found in the waters of southern Australia and Tasmania, it grows to around 15cm long and has skin covered in tooth-like scales, called "denticles".

YOU DO: Found in Australia, the leafy sea dragon is a member of the same family as the seahorse.

Sep 30-20:15

Oct 29-16:56