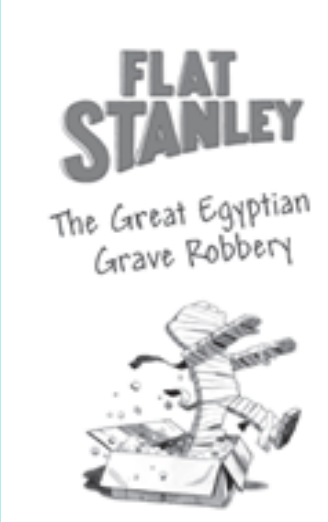
Wednesday 9th June 2021

LO: To read the text fluently to the class

Brief outline of the text:

In extract from Flat Stanley – the great Egyptian Grave Robbery. Written by Jeff Brown. In the story, Stanley gets an important letter that asked him to come travel to Egypt to help with an archaeologist dig.



Glossary:

Aroma - pleasant smell

broadening - expand your knowledge

Bulletin board - a notice board for public messages

enviously - jealous

Exotic - unusual, from a different place

Keenly - eager and enthusiastic souvenirs - gifts from a holiday urgent - needs to be done immediately.

Questions:

1. How did Stanley become flat?
2. Who is the letter for?
3. Where did Sir Abu want Stanley go?
4. Why does Stanley travel by mail?
5. Why was Arthur glum?
6. Do you think Stanley's dad wants him to go?