

Monday 16th November

LO: To retrieve key information from a nonfiction text

Brief outline:

Information text about how the world evolved and how animals mutated.

Glossary:

Comprehend - hard to believe

Descendants - come from a ancestor.

Fused - joined together

Geological - study of Earth

Generation - all things living at the same time.

Genes - what we are made up of.

Forming - shape into something

Traits -What makes up a person.

Stable - steady

Questions:

What is evolution?

What is mutation?

Tuesday 17th November

LO: To retrieve key information from a nonfiction text

I DO: What did the Earth need to have life?

WE DO: Which era was the Jurassic?

YOU DO: What was the 'supercontinent' called?

YOU DO: What is the idea of evolution?

Wednesday 18th November

LO: To retrieve key information from a nonfiction text

I DO: Why do you have different continents?

WE DO :Why was it hard to fossils animals millions of years ago?

YOU DO: How are new islands made?

Thursday 19th November

LO: To find key information about evolution and mutation

Create a spider diagram of what you have learnt.

Friday 20th November

LO: To break down the sentence structure

Who? What? Where? When? Why? How? Conjunctions

I DO: The evolution of hard shells marks the beginning of what we call the Cambrian period.

YOU DO: There has been life on earth ever since the planet was cool enough and stable enough to support it - about three and a half billion years.

