

Starter:

What is a conjunction?

Can you list conjunctions?

Join these sentences using conjunctions

The temperature was below freezing _____ the men carried on.

They jumped with joy _____ they got to the top of the mountain.

They heated their boots _____ the boots froze in the night.

Tuesday 17th November 2020

LO: To identify the emotions of a character

Yesterday we learnt new vocabulary from our new text. Tell your partner the meaning of these words

summit

plunged

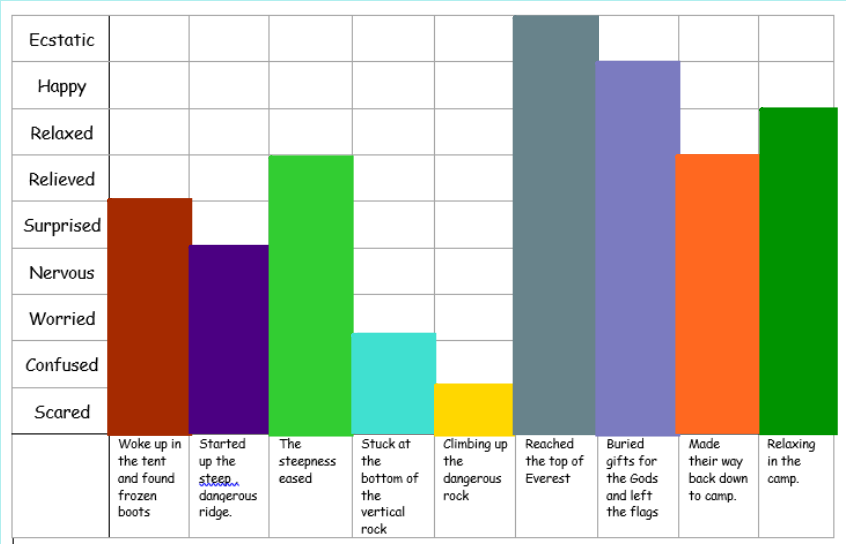

ridge

Read the story - Everest - The remarkable story of Edmund Hillary and Tenzing Norgay.

This non fiction text was written by Ranulph Fiennes in the style of a story. This is a story about two very different people and their lives that led them to battle below-freezing temperatures and tumbling ice rocks to reach the top of the world's highest mountain.

Read pages 40 - 48 -  <https://read.amazon.ca/>

We are going to be thinking about how these two people would be feeling as they move up and down the mountain.

Write at least 3 sentences explaining why you chose that emotion.

I think they felt ecstatic at the summit of the mountain because they had finally achieved their goal.

I chose the worried emotion when they reached the bottom of the vertical rock because I think they would be worried about how they could get up to the top safely.

