LO: To understand a character's emotions

Starter:

Pick a fronted adverbial from the word wheel and write a sentence using that adverbial.

Let's read:

Once upon a time there lived a sister and brother who were not at all alike. In every way they were different.

The sister stayed inside on her own, reading and dreaming. The brother played outside with his friends, laughing and shouting, throwing and kicking, roughing and tumbling.

At night he slept soundly in his room. But she would lie awake, listening to the noises of the night. Sometimes he crept into her room to frighten her, for he knew that she was afraid of the dark.

Whenever they were together they fought and argued noisily. All the time.

How do you think each character in the book feels?

Is the boy really a mean person? Or is he acting that way for a reason?

Task

I would like you to imagine you are one of the characters.

Write a diary entry from their point of view.
What do they do each day? What do they think and feel?

Dear Diary,

Today, I was playing out with my friends and we were having so much fun. Or at least, we WERE having fun, until my stuipd sister joined us. I HATE her. I wanted to be Mum and Dad's favourite, but then, she came along and ruined that. Sometimes, I sneak into her room in the middle of the night to scare her, so she will run away and I can be the favourite again.

Today, she was especially irritating...
