Jesus Has Risen

24 On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. 2 They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, 3 but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. 4 While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. 5 In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? 6 He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: 7 'The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.' " 8 Then they remembered his words.

9 When they came back from the tomb, they told all these things to the Eleven and to all the others. 10 It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them who told this to the apostles. 11 But they did not believe the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense. 12 Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. Bending over, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he went away, wondering to himself what had happened

WE DO: We are going to write a news report about the events in the story.

Here is an example:

BREAKING NEWS

JESUS IS ALIVE!

The news has just broken that Jesus, the son of God, is alive once more. He was sentenced to death on Friday and was nailed to a cross and left to die.

Once he died, his body was left in a tomb and covered with a stone. No one should have been able to move that stone but when the women went to see the body, the stone had been moved and his body was missing.

Everyone was confused then he appeared again. He has proved to the disciples that he is the son of God.
