LO: To use prepositions

Starter:

Subordinating Conjunctions:

Use a conjunction in 2 different sentences.

We re going to be using preposition to describe where things are.

In pairs read through the text and highlight any prepositions that you found.

Let's add these prepositions to the working wall.

Can you find these prepositions in the text:

Under the brightly-lit moon sky.....

Between two wooden huts.....

Trampling through wet leaves underfoot.....

I DO: Use 'Under the brightly-lit moon sky' as a preposition

WE DO: Use 'Between two wooden huts' as a preposition

YOU DO: Use 'Trampling through wet leaves underfoot' as a preposition

Challenge:

Write two sentences using preposition phrases.

Examples you could use:

Below the blazing sun.....

In the dim-lit cave....

Under the old, oak tree.....

In the beginning of the evening....
