Today, we are going to be looking at some different books. These books both have something in common.
Can you guess what it is?

Each book uses a technique called 'meanwhile'. This is where something is happening in the story, and 'meanwhile' something else is happening, at the same time.

Example:

Miss Dawson was cooking her tea. Meanwhile,
her cats were scratching the curtains.

Example:

Miss Jordan was sleeping soundly in her bed.
Meanwhile, her dog was scratching and jumping on the couch.

Today, we are going to write some 'meanwhile.
sentences.

I DO:

1. I was walking calmly to the shops to get some orange juice.

Meanwhile, My brother was preparing breakfast.
