History

Key question:

How has travel changed our lives?

Starter:

What do you notice?

What do you wonder?

LO: To match the information to the pictures.

Questions for the first reading

1. How did people travel before cars?
2. What did Bertha and Karl want to make?
3. Who did Bertha go to visit?
4. What was she the first to do?

Lets Read:

Bertha Benz

Here is Bertha Benz. She married Karl in 1872. Karl loved bicycles. He loved travel. He loved to make things.

Here is a cart pulled by horses. This was slow.

Bertha and Karl wanted to make motor carriages.

This is one of their first cars.

One day, Bertha and two of her boys went to visit her mother. They went in the car!

On the way, She ran out of fuel. She had to get more from a shop.She cleaned a pipe with her hat pin.She fixed a pipe with her garter.

Everyone talked about her car trip.
It was an advert for their cars.
Everyone wanted to know more.

Pair – share the answers to the questions

1. How did people travel before cars?
2. What did Bertha and Karl want to make?
3. Who did Bertha go to visit?
4. What was she the first to do?

Can you put these pictures in order?

_____	_____
_____	_____

Match the sentences to the pictures.

Bertha and Carl wanted to make cars.

Bertha went in the car to see her Mother.

Before cars horses pulled carts.

She went 66 miles. It was the first long trip in a car.