LO - To calculate difference

Starter

Find the difference between these cubes.

I Do

Beth has 6 doughnuts and Rob has 3 doughnuts.

How many more doughnuts does Beth have than Rob.

Beth has _____ more doughnuts than Rob.

Beth has 6 doughnuts and Rob has 3 doughnuts.

How many more doughnuts does Beth have than Rob.

Beth has _____ more doughnuts than Rob.

We Do

Tom has 9 cars and Jack has 4 doughnuts.

How many more doughnuts does Tom have than Jack.

Tom has _____ more doughnuts than Jack.

We Do

Lilly has 10 sweets and Darcy has 2 sweets.

How many more doughnuts does Lilly have than Darcy.

Lilly has _____ more doughnuts than Darcy.

Eva has 7 sweets and Mo has 3 sweets. How many more sweets does Eva have? Eva has _____ more sweets than Mo.
Jack has 6 pens and Jim has 4 pens. How many more sweets does Jack have? Jack has _____ more pens than Jim.
Riley has 8 toys cars and Harry has 4 toy cars. How many more toys cars does Riley have? Riley has _____ more toy cars than Harry.
Lola has 9 dolls and Kate has 4 dolls. How many more dolls does Lola have? Lola has _____ more dolls than Kate.
I have 6 stamps and my sister has 3 stamps. How many more stamps do I have? I have _____ more stamps than my sister.
Martin has 7 cakes and Glen has 2 cakes. How many more cakes does Martin have? Martin has _____ more cakes than Glen.

Challenge

Two numbers have a difference of 4

The larger number is less than 10

What could the two numbers be?